HIGHWOOD.

J. H. Foster returned Tuesday from Cairo, Ill.

William Mecham returned to Bagley, Wis., Thursday.

David Taylor, of Bloomington, Wis., is the guest of Mrs. Joseph Mecham.

Miss Lillian Tufty, of Chicago, is spending the week with the Misses Hangren.

John Gustafson suffered a re-lapse on Tuesday, but is now feeling some better.

Four of the musicians from the

The members of the Swedish Lutheran church tendered Professor Smith, who is the leader of their choir, and also of the Swedish Lutheran church in Evanston, a delightful surprise party at his home in Lake View Monday night.

Mrs. Edward Matthews, accompanied by her son, Edward, and Mrs. Ives, left Tuesday for South Bend, Ind., where her son will this year attend Notre Dame university. Mesdames Matthews and Ives are expected home the last of this week.

The regular council meeting was held at the Village hall Tuesday evening. Aside from the paying of bills the most important transaction of the evening was the decision of the council to purchase a tract of ten acres, providing the title proves clear, to be used as a filter bed for the sanitary sewer. The village has in option on this piece of property of ten acres at $800.

Thomas S. Thurston, of the Post, who was arrested last week, and had his hearing last Saturday afternoon before Justice William E. Cummings, has been bound over to the grand jury, and is now in jail at Waukegan. Thurston, in a drunken brawl, attempted to break in the door of Mrs. Wines' home, a laundry woman who does work for the soldiers. Mrs. Wines had her arm fractured, she claimed, and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Thurston, whom she succeeded in badly pounding about the head before the arrival of the officer.

Greatest interest is attending the enthusiastic efforts of the Odd fellows, and of the friends of Thomas Gustafson, who is planning to make the benefit moonlight picnic, to be given next Wednesday evening, September 17, at the Fort Sheridan Park, the greatest, jolliest, and most successful event that has ever taken place in the history of Highwood. Tickets of admission are only 10 cents. A 25 cent ticket entitles one to all the privileges of the evening. There is to be a superior vaudeville entertainment and a grand dance. Do not forget Wednesday, September 17, is the night. Come yourself and invite your friends. There will be a big time—too good to miss—so come.

night as a benefit for the church in Evanston. The party will start from Evanston and go north to Waukegan.

Miss Gavitt, who, mounted on her fine little Kentucky thoroughbred, followed the hounds and came in at the finish at the Onwentsia hunt last Saturday, enjoyed her first experience in this sport immensely. We are glad to state that "the finish" was "liver" and that the hounds did not hunt live game.
