

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1902.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 17.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent

Remember the "Rummage Sale."

Charles Lobdell will leave this week for Yale.

Arthur VanSchaick left for Williams College this week.

Miss Kathryn McCauley leaves tomorrow for Bryn Mawr.

J. McGregor Adams and wife have returned from a short trip.

Gymnasium suits made at the Ladies Bazaar. Phone 302. **

Russell Jones and Turnley Lightner left for Harvard last week.

John Freberg and E. Nelson spent last week fishing at Grass Lake.

Miss Florence Evans spent Monday with Miss Bean in Waukegan.

Both little Harold and Alma Olesen are on the convalescent list.

Miss Jessie Bates leaves this week for a three weeks' visit in Tennessee.

Clarence Harnblom, of Chicago, was the guest of Mrs. O. L. Olesen over Sunday.

Frederick Schumacher and wife are enjoying a trip of several weeks in Michigan.

Miss Wycoff entertained Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cook, of Chicago, at dinner Friday evening.

Mrs. Straus and family, accompanied by Mrs. Henry E. Horner, returned to the city Monday.

John and Benjamin Morton, of San Mateo, Cal., are the guests of their uncle, Thomas Morton.

Wanted—Child's nurse, two cooks, two second girls, one laundress, at once. Inquire Ladies' Bazaar. **

Dr. Pomeroy, the house physician at the Moraine, has decided to locate permanently in Highland Park.

Mrs. Burgess, of Evanston, with her guest, Mrs. Barton, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Thomas Howe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Fisher, of Los Angeles, Cal., are at the Greenwood Inn, at Evanston, for the present.

J. B. Denman and family will leave in the near future for Rogers Park, where they will live on Estes avenue.

Miss O'Brien, who has been spending the summer at F. B. Green's, is again occupying her home on Sheridan Road.

A. Bock returned Saturday from Detroit, Mich., where he attended the convention of chiefs of fire departments.

Mrs. Horner and family, who have been occupying the Lasher residence, on Sheridan Road, returned to Chicago, Monday.

Sydney Mandl and family, who have been occupying the Schauflier house during the summer, return to Chicago today.

Miss Blanche Newton will take Miss Bates' place in the choir at the Presbyterian church during the latter's absence in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Messinger have returned from the east, where they have been spending a delightful summer at the sea shore.

Avoid the typhoid fever epidemic by drinking freely of Sparkling Spring Water, which is a good, wholesome drink. Phone 984.

Miss Hattie Greuel, who has been spending the past month here with relatives and friends, has returned to her home at Winona Lake, Ind.

L. J. M. Malmin and family, who have been living in Highland Park for some time past, have returned to their former home in Ravenswood.

Highland Park Council No. 1066, Royal Arcanum, will meet next Monday night. A very interesting meeting is promised and all members are urged to be present.

Invitations are out this week to the Marriage of Miss Irene Shields and Dr. Vose which will take place October, 2.

What has become of the squirrels? Several have noticed that lately the squirrels have disappeared from their old haunts.

Geo. B. Cummings who was successfully operated on by Dr. Ochsner at the Augustana Hospital Wednesday, of this week, is doing well.

Miss Annie Cobb entered the Kindergarten College in the Fine Arts Building, Chicago, this week and will take the full college course.

Mrs. Frank E. Woodruff returned to Cleveland, Ohio, Tuesday, visiting en route at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. L. J. M. Malmin, in Ravenswood.

Attention is called to the North Shore Gas Co.'s advertisement on the fifth page of this issue. It is important and should interest nearly everyone owning a home in the Park.

The first Sabbath evening of each month, at 7:30 o'clock, there will be a song and preaching service in English at the Evangelical Lutheran Zion congregation on Central avenue.

Mrs. Benton Livesay, who accompanied by her two children, Gladys and Byron, has been spending the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Dorsey, returned Wednesday to Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Mat Zanley gave a family picnic at their home last Sunday. There was music and dancing and over 100 guests from Chicago, Lake Forest, Kenosha and Milwaukee were present.

There will be a public hearing in the city hall, Tuesday, September 23, at 4 p. m., to discuss the question of putting in a new water main on Laurel avenue between McGovern and Hickory streets.

Mrs. Gregg and Miss Cassie Ryan, who have been spending a few days at the Railroad Men's Home with their father, H. J. Ryan, have returned to their home in Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. Woods, who for the past three years has been housekeeper for Albert D. Yager and family, left for New York, Monday, and will sail September 27, for England, where she intends to make her home with her children.

If you have anything to contribute to the "Rummage Sale" word may be sent to the secretary, Mrs. E. H. Brown, or to any of the other officers of the Highland Park Woman's Club, and the articles will be called for at any stated time.

Miss Lora Smith was hostess at a very pretty dinner, Saturday evening, given in honor of Miss Irene Shields and her fiancé, Dr. Vose. After dinner the young people, forming a pleasant party, attended the harvest dance at the Moraine.

Miss Ada Knox, who returned from the west Friday, September 5, died at the home of her brother, Samuel Knox, the following day, Saturday, September 6. The interment, which took place Tuesday, September 9, was at Lake Forest.

Mrs. B. A. Smith, of Park Ridge, Ill., who, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Kittie G. Smith, recently joined her son, Professor Jessie L. Smith, principal of the grammar school, hopes to be settled in a few weeks in her new home at 330 Central avenue.

From now on there will be a general exodus among the young people to the various schools and colleges in the east. Tuesday next will mark the departure of Miss Frances Everett for Smith, at Northampton, Mass., and of H. Chandler Egan and George Jones for Harvard.