

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mr. Aldrich has returned from a pleasant trip to Canada.

Everybody's lawn is coming up full of crowfoot grass—something unusual.

Charles Robe is filling Mr. Cummings' place during his absence at the hospital.

Mrs. Lobdell and family, of Ledge-mere, will return to Chicago the coming week.

Carl Bullock has started his new house on Sheridan Road, near Roger Williams avenue.

W. W. Willett's new home on Sheridan Road, just east of the fountain, is well under way.

The Northwestern Military Academy opened Wednesday with a larger enrollment than ever.

Mrs. H. O. Phillips, who has been spending a few days with Miss Davidson, will return to Chicago tomorrow.

Allan Jones, Van Tyle Harrington and Jack Gray leave in the near future to enter preparatory school this year.

What has become of the squirrels? Several have noticed that lately the squirrels have disappeared from their old haunts.

Max Schaal, John Deutsch and John Horsch, all of Chicago, spent several days, this week, visiting at the home of William Vetter.

James Ayres and wife, who have been spending the past three weeks with E. L. Webster and family, have returned to Mt. Pulaski, Ill.

The cotillion, at the Highland Park Club, last Friday evening was probably the most beautiful party ever given in the club house.

Alexander Mason, wife and family have returned from Marblehead, Mass., where they have been spending the summer at the sea shore.

Miss Bliss, teacher of German and French in the high school, having spent the last two years in Europe studying the languages, would like to take a few private pupils. p-17

All will be glad to hear the good tidings of Raymond Flinn's marked improvement during the past week. Mr. Flinn was able on Wednesday to sit out on the veranda and enjoy the fresh air and sunlight for the first time since his illness.

Miss Bertha Chapman accompanied by her fiance, Captain Skipworth, has returned from England and her sister, Miss Grace, is expected home about the first of October. Lieutenant Morrill, her fiance, is now out of danger and slowly convalescing.

True to the tradition—after a feast, a famine—society is enjoying a period of relaxation after the brilliant gaieties that filled the previous week. With the exception of the tournament at Exmoor there has been very little entertaining, socially, during the week.

Miss Charlotte Brand, after a most delightful sea voyage, has arrived at Antwerp and is now with a party of seven others making a very pleasant trip on wheel to Bonn and Cologne. After several weeks of sightseeing, Miss Brand will settle down to serious study in Berlin.

Twenty young people attended a hayrack party, given by Miss Lillie Vetter, one evening last week. It consisted of a drive to Shermerville, to the home of her uncle, where the evening was spent. Refreshments were served, after which they returned home, all having had a most enjoyable time.

S. Levin is at present engaged in regulating five old clocks for Melville E. Stone. One is an old veteran timekeeper that has told the hours for over 200 years; another is a most unique piece of mechanism, fashioned in every detail like a miniature ship, and has an interesting family history. The clock was presented many years ago to Mr. Stone's father, who was a sea captain.

A mothers' meeting will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Woodruff on Prospect avenue. Miss Harrison, the well-known kindergartner, will deliver an address. This meeting is the first of a series that is to be held during the winter months at the homes of various ladies who have very kindly opened their houses for this purpose. Great interest has been manifested in this work and a number of well known lecturers have been secured. Miss Ward's kindergarten class now numbers twenty little people.

Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS-LETTER.

Dress does not make the person. Nor does a clean exterior indicate a clean interior. To be well all organs of the body must work in harmony. Rocky Mountain Tea does this work. G. B. Cummings. 1-cg
