

THE MORAINE.

George McReynolds entertained a party of fourteen at a harvest dinner in the Amsterdam room.

Mr. A. C. Frost entertained a party of five gentlemen from Toronto, Canada, at dinner Saturday evening.

The Misses Calhoun, who have been spending the summer in the east, have arrived at the Moraine for the remainder of the season.

Orson Smith and wife entertained Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Pike, and Miss Hester Riley at dinner Saturday evening.

John W. Scott and wife brought out a coaching party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Holbrook, of Yonkers, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hoyt, of Chicago, to the Moraine Saturday evening, where they were afterward entertained at a harvest dinner.

The harvest dance at the Moraine Saturday evening which even surpassed the brilliant cotillion of a few weeks ago, was preceded by several delightful dinner parties. Mr. and Mrs. George E. Marcy entertained Messrs. and Mesdames J. F. Curtis, J. O. Watkins, Jas. Prindiville, F. R. McMullin, and E. A. Bournique, in the Norfolk room.

The harvest dance at the Moraine Saturday was a great success, and probably the most important social event of the season. The hall was beautifully and suggestively decorated with all sorts of harvest products. The decorating was done by Albert Lehman, formerly steward of the Highland Park Club, who has developed quite a wonderful genius in this sort of work and the artistic effect he produced called out much praise from many of the persons present. The dance was an informal one, nevertheless, top boots and blue jeans were not in evidence, and as the music was furnished by Krell's orchestra, led by Mr. Krell himself, the dancing was lively from the beginning until "Home Sweet Home" was played at midnight. Mr. Bournique happily suggested several German figures which he led in his usual splendid manner, and there was a delightful spirit of jollity and mirth on all sides that carried the entertainment through to the satisfaction of every one present. At midnight a jolly little luncheon was served in the main dining room to which over 150 guests sat down. Genuine regret was expressed that this dance probably marks the final event of this kind at the Moraine for the present season, although many entertainments of this kind are promised for next year.

A SUCCESS.

The benefit entertainment which was given for Albert Larson, at Goldberg's opera house, last Friday evening, was in every way a complete success, far surpassing the expectations of the most sanguine, $99 having been realized. Great credit is certainly due Mr. Levin, with whom the idea originated, both for the thoughtfulness on his part and for the zeal and enthusiasm with which he carried the plan through to a successful issue. Mr. Goldberg very generously tendered the use of his opera house for the evening and Miss Wycoff and all the others who contributed toward the evening's pleasure very kindly and willingly gave their services, and everybody responded most cheerfully. After all there is always a pleasant, almost selfish satisfaction in the feeling that one has done his part toward helping along a good and worthy cause.

OBITUARY.

MRS. MARY LILLIAN ROHR.

Mrs. Mary Lillian Rohr, wife of Mathius Rohr, died at her home Sunday night, September 14, of tuberculosis peritonitis after an illness of over a year, aged 21 years, 2 months and 15 days.

Mrs. Rohr was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Zimmer, and was born June 29, 1881, in Wheeling, Ill. November 30, 1899, she was united in marriage to Mathius Rohr.

Mrs. Rohr leaves a bereaved husband, a 20-months-old son, Francis Peter, her parents, two brothers and three sisters, and many friends to mourn her death.

The funeral services were held Wednesday at the Evangelical Lutheran Zion Congregation. Rev. A. Baumann, who officiated, took as his text, Hebrew 9:27: "It is appointed unto man once to die, and after this the judgment."

The interment was at Wheeling, Ill.

When once liberated within your system, it produces a most wonderful effect. It's worth one's last dollar to feel the pleasure of life that comes by taking Rocky Mountain Tea. G. B. Cummings. 1-cg

Elmer Skidmore, who has been ill with typhoid is now convalescing rapidly.

Misses Julia Grace and Kittie Moore, of Chicago, were guests of Miss Cox over Sunday.

Mrs. C. E. Preston and brother, D. Steensohn, are on their way home from the Pacific coast.

Mr. Gebbie, who has been at the Hotel Mecham since July, left Tuesday for Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Halsey C. Gavitt, in honor of her daughter's birthday, will entertain at a luncheon Monday.

A party of sixteen young people attended a marshmallow roast down on the beach Tuesday evening.

Misses Mary Sullivan and Alma Kelley spent Saturday in Chicago and enjoyed an afternoon with "Foxy Grandpa."

While the date has not been positively decided upon, in all probability the Highwood high school will open next Monday, September 22.

Dr. Westcott's little patient, Willie Clark, who was thrown by a trolley car last week and badly injured, is making phenomenal strides toward recovery.

Mr. Hemingway, the former manager of A. Robertson's Highwood office, has returned to his old position with the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railway.

Tickets for the grand masque and civic ball to be given by the 3d Squadron of the Second Cavalry at Fort Sheridan Park, October 11, can be found on sale at Laegeler's drug store.

The young people of the Christian Endeavor society of the United Evangelical church, of Highland Park, held a very pleasant social at the home of Mrs. F. D. Fritsch, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Thirkield, of Chicago, and Mr. DeGroft, of Kentucky, who will attend the hunt at Onwentsia, Saturday, will be the guests of Mrs. Halsey C. Gavitt and daughter over Sunday.

It is to be regretted that the elements were not in a brighter mood, Wednesday evening, but notwithstanding the rain, quite a goodly number attended the benefit picnic for John Gustafson, at Fort Sheridan Park. The program was carried out as planned, and everyone had a splendid time.

The Epworth League holds an attractive evening service every Sunday at 7 o'clock in the Highwood M. E. church, Highwood and Lauretta avenues. The topic Sunday, September 21, is from Ephesians: "Fullness of God; how secured." A cordial welcome is extended to strangers.

The members of the Highwood M. E. church were not a little surprised early in the week to learn that their pastor, Rev. Hiram F. Lawler, is soon to become a happy benedict. The invitations announce that his marriage to Miss Mabel Eleanor Buntin will take place in Kingston, N. Y., September 25.

EXMOOR CLUB.

A mixed foursome will be played on Saturday.

An attractive feature of the tournament has been the delightful music each afternoon.

The tournament will close Saturday with a state dinner, in honor of the occasion, and a grand cotillion.

Mrs. C. H. Candy and Mrs. R. H. Donnelly, of the Midlothian Club, and Mrs. H. A. Beidler, of Lake Geneva, are guests at the Exmoor Club this week.

Mrs. Alexander and Miss Everett played a fine game, quite justifying the high hopes of their friends. Mrs. J. M. Cutter, the runner up in 1900 to the surprise of all fell short of her usual golf and will not be able to play for the Exmoor cup. Sixty-five entries were made and cards were handed in by fifty-six. The tournament will close, Saturday, the 20th.

The Women's open tournament at the Exmore Country Club opened most auspiciously Wednesday. The weather was superb and that the players were all in excellent trim was evidenced in the splendid golf that was played. In the qualifying round Miss Johnny Carpenter, of Westward Ho, led with a score of 92, the best record that has ever before been made for the course in competition.
