

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1902.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 18.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

Little James Sheahan is very much better.

Nelson Cheney left last week for Randolph, Va.

Miss Clara A. Bock spent Sunday with friends in Chicago.

D. A. Holmes has returned from his trip to the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Cheney left this week for Randolph, Va.

Mrs. E. C. Gray has taken the C. C. Cheney place for two and one half years.

E. Lindstrom has returned from a pleasant visit of several months with his parents in Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, of Chicago, were the guests of Mrs. James Grant over Sunday.

Miss Grace Chapman, who was expected home October 1, will not return until some time in November.

Mrs. C. E. Stuart enjoyed a delightful little visit at the home of Mrs. McArthur, in Chicago, over Sunday.

The Parochial Publishing Co. will soon have its attractive Souvenir Catholic Home Calendars ready for distribution.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Childs returned Monday evening from Chicago, where they were the guests of Mrs. Green for several days.

Avoid the typhoid fever epidemic by drinking freely of Sparkling Spring Water, which is a good, wholesome drink. Phone 984.

Captain Skipworth, of England, who has been the guest of Charles A. Chapman and family for several weeks, expects to leave tomorrow.

John Morton and his brother Benjamin, of San Mateo, California, will spend the month of October with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morton.

St. Mary's Catholic Church is arranging for a bazaar to be held at Goldberg's opera house sometime in the near future.

The Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railway company has received a new express car from the Brill Car Company, Philadelphia. They will have it running next week.

Everett L. Millard is one of the enthusiastic horsemen of Highland Park who thoroughly enjoys the sport of following the hounds at the Saturday hunts at Ouwentsia.

Mrs. LeFeber, who has been visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. Watson, at the Railroad Men's Home, was unexpectedly called home to Eaton, Ind., Sunday evening, by the illness of her husband.

A very pretty little christening was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheahan Sunday week for their little son, John Raymond, who was baptized by Rev. J. J. Morrissey in the presence of a number of relatives from Lake Forest and Chicago.

Work on the new mess hall progresses, the walls of the second story having been completed. The applications received at the academy this year have greatly exceeded the accommodations of the building, and in consequence a number of applicants were perforce refused.

The staff at the Northwestern Military Academy remains practically the same as last year with the exception that Dr. H. H. Rogers, formerly a member of the academic staff, succeeds Captain B. E. Trask, who resigned last June, and Mr. A. L. Marshall succeeds Lieutenant J. A. Hunter as instructor in physical culture. Dr. Rogers will also act as principal of the academic department. Colonel Davidson will still remain president of the institution and general superintendent.

St. Mary's Catholic Church, Highland Park, Ill.

REV. J. C. MADDEN, Pastor.

Published from the "Catholic Home Calendar" and loaned by the courtesy of Thomas Shayne, the very fair and gentlemanly representative of the Parochial Publishing Co.

The following testimonials to Thomas Shayne were published this week in the Jones County Times, at Monticello, Iowa:

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that Thomas Shayne has brought to my notice a copy of his "Catholic Home Calendar" which he proposes to gratuitously to the Catholic homes in this parish. I have examined the work and find nothing objectionable to the issue.

M. S. MURPHY, Pastor.

MONTICELLO, Iowa, Sept. 20, 1902.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to certify that the Catholic Home Calendars, with the pictures of the Sacred Heart and Immaculate Conception churches and the business advertisements of firms in the city of Monticello, have been sent in mailing tubes to the Catholic homes in the parishes of the above named churches through this postoffice.

DANIEL EKIEL,
Postmaster.

We, the undersigned business men of Monticello, Iowa, hereby testify that the advertising service among the Catholic people in this community, which has been rendered us by Thomas Shayne, representative of the Parochial Publishing Company, Highland Park, Illinois, has been proven to be completely satisfactory in every particular.

LOVELL STATE BANK,
By R. C. Storton, Cashier.
EASTWOOD & CHASE,
O. G. MEYER,
SCHOONOVER & DRURY,
A. MATTHIESSEN,
D. MUNDELL,
HUBBARD & HANSEN,
H. W. HAGEN,
M. H. TEETER,
A. W. STEINER,
MONTICELLO MONUMENTAL WORKS,
YOUNG & CURTIS,
H. C. BOHLKEN,
MONTICELLO TILE FACTORY,
C. M. BROWN.

For Sale—An oak bed-room suite; nearly new. Apply at NEWS-LETTER office.

Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS-LETTER.