A most appropriate and beautiful tribute has been paid to the memory of Blanchard Delang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Delang, by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church, of which society the young man, up to the time of his death, was an enthusiastic member. On the front page of the In Memoriam compiled by his young friends we find the following beautiful words, remarkable for one so young: "I would like to live long enough to do some good in this world."—Blanchard Delang. The booklet also contains the comforting words spoken by Rev. Moses Smith, D. D., on the occasion of the funeral services, July 23, 1902.
