

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond, Ind. May 1, 02

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1902.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 19.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

Mrs. J. McGregor Adams has returned from New York.

For Sale—An oak bed-room suite; nearly new. Apply at NEWS LETTER office.

Miss Risteen, of Boston, is the guest of Mrs. Jas. H. Shields and family.

Miss Alice Hosmer, of Chicago, was the guest of Miss Charlotte Yoe over Sunday.

Miss May Merryweather entertained a small house party of Chicago friends over Sunday.

Mr. Price, of the North Shore Gas Company, left Thursday for a three weeks' trip to the Pacific coast.

Mrs. C. F. Schneck, nee Eva Dorsey, of Wauwatosa, Wis., was the guest of her brother, Mr. A. E. Dorsey, this week.

Miss Jennie Olsen, who has been spending the past five weeks with Mrs. O. L. Olesen, has returned to her home in Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boddie, of Chicago, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Childs at the Little Log Cabin during the past week.

R. J. O'Brien, accompanied by his little son, left Wednesday for his little son, left Wednesday for Petersburg, Canada, to visit his mother who is over eighty years old.

Mr. E. Norman Scott, who was married in London, England, last spring, accompanied by his bride, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien F. Yoe.

Mrs. M. Loeffel has transferred her lares and penates from Chicago to Highland Park, where she will make her permanent home with her daughter, Mrs. O. L. Oleson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Harrington, who went east to place their son, Van Tyle Harrington, in school at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, are spending several weeks in New York.

Edward A. Small and family have returned from a pleasant summer outing.

Mr. R. P. Street has returned from Reviere de Loup, in Quebec, Canada.

Mrs. Maerkland, who has spending several weeks with her son, has returned to Milwaukee.

Miss Blanche Bender, who has been making an extended visit with relatives in Iowa, has returned.

It is pleasant to learn that George B. Cummings is gaining each day and will be able to sit up next week.

Mrs. Richard J. Street although still confined to the hospital in Quebec, is gaining daily, and is expected home, November 1.

Autumn and winter millinery of the newest designs at Mrs. Grace Bohl's Ladies' Bazaar. All are invited to inspect before deciding your choice.

Everyone is glad to see Albert Larson home again, and to know that he is convalescing rapidly and hopes to be able to return to his old post before many more days.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Luther have returned from a pleasant trip in northern Michigan and the Lake Superior districts, and are with Judge and Mrs. Hibbard at Ravin-oaks.

The Christian Endeavor societies of the different churches will hold a union meeting next Sunday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, in the tent north of the library building. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The round of gaities in honor of Miss Shields came to a brilliant culmination Wednesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shields entertained the bridal party at an elaborate military dinner. The gentlemen were in full dress uniform in honor of the occasion.

Who's NEWS-LETTER are you reading?

Everything cleaned and dyed; also get your feathers curled at the Ladies' Bazaar. Mrs. Bohl, Prop.

The Railroad Men's Home Board have prevailed on Mr. and Mrs. Watson to continue the management of the Home.

Mrs. A. E. Dorsey has been confined to her bed all week with a severe attack of lumbago, but we are happy to report that she is now feeling much better.

The social which was given by the young people of the Baptist church at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Seldon, Tuesday evening, was largely attended, and proved a most enjoyable affair.

The announcement made last week that the Motaine contemplates keeping open house this winter has been heralded with joy by not a few North Shore families, who are considering the closing of their establishments for the winter.

The bazaar for the benefit of St. Mary's church will open at Goldberg's hall on the evening of November 6. There will be an interesting and varied program presented with special features each evening and a continuous good time is promised.

There are some people who radiate sunshine wherever they go, and who possess the pleasant faculty of making others happy in little, unexpected ways that many of us would never think of. Probably there is no one in Highland Park who takes more real pleasure in sharing her flowers than does Mrs. C. E. Stuart, whose pretty blossoms have found their way to many and many a weary bedside, carrying cheer and comfort to the sick poor living in the crowded districts of the city.

For Sale—Cheap; a base-burner, good as new. Inquire at NEWS-LETTER office.

Vaudeville every afternoon and evening at Fort Sheridan Park during the winter.

Mrs. Lyon, who has been occupying Mrs. E. E. Gray's home, has returned to the city.

Mayor and Mrs. Evans are entertaining Mrs. F. C. Shattuck and her little son, of Milwaukee, this week.

Mrs. G. C. James returned this week from a delightful summer spent in Springfield, Mass., Kent, Conn., and the Berkshire Hills.

Avoid the typhoid fever epidemic by drinking freely of Sparkling Spring Water, which is a good, wholesome drink. Phone 984.

For Sale—Fine east front lot, 66 x 140, with good view of lake, at $10 per foot. It is the best bargain in Highland Park. F. C. Clark, owner. 19-20

Mrs. W. S. Watkins, who has been occupying Mrs. T. B. Brown's house, has returned to the city. Evidently the rainy days are sending people back to town.

The Basket Club, which had a very pleasant meeting at the home of Miss May Merryweather last week, had an equally pleasant time Thursday at the home of Mrs. H. E. Mason.

Miss Elizabeth B. White, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. J. Nally, at Grasmere, during the month of September, left Sunday for New Hope, Kentucky, to visit her aunt, Mrs. Edward Miles.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Childs, of Evanston, brought out a merry party of six on the "Old Times" coach Monday evening to F. B. Green's where they were entertained at dinner and later enjoyed several spirited games of ping-pong.