HIGHWOOD.

Joseph McGourty, of the Harrison street brewery, is the guest of William J. Welch.

Fine photographs of the late Rev. J. C. Madden may be procured at T. L. Horne's studio.

Rev. West, of Evanston, supplied the pulpit at the Highwood M. E. Church, Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. F. Lawler.

The many friends of Mrs. William Landt, formerly of Highwood, will be sorry to learn that she is very ill and has been removed to Fon du Lac.

The Epworth League has arranged an extremely interesting and attractive series of meetings to be held in the Highwood M. E. church by the young people every Sunday evening. All are welcome. Come yourself and bring a friend.

The ladies of the Highwood M. E. church will give a reception in honor of Rev. H. F. Lawler and his bride in the church, Tuesday evening, October 8, from 8 to 10. A cordial invitation to the reception is extended to everyone by the members of the committee.

We daresay there never were two more thoroughly surprised people than Mr. and Mrs. Julius Laegeler Tuesday evening, when a host of friends took possession of their home and gave them a delightful surprise party in honor of their tenth marriage anniversary, as each guest brought a bright, resplendent gift of "tin," the presents were legion, some were really very pretty, and all were useful. Messrs. and party it was. After spending a pleasant hour or so at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laegeler the entire party adjourned to the village hall, where they danced until the wee sma' hours. Mr. and Mrs. Laegeler were very much touched and greatly appreciated this pleasant expression of friendship on the part of their many friends.

Mesdames A. A. Dahl, William Hochstetter, E. J. Sheaben, D. Warren, James Golden, Charles Gordon, Harry Marsh, F. D. Fritsch, M. J. Gibbs, William Henn, O. L. Olesen, L. Shelzling, Ed Matthews, D. H. Murphy, Dr. and Mrs. Wescott, Mesdames Steensohn, Olson, Kathryn Kelly, Misses Sundborg, Halsey C. Gavitt, Yager, Olson, Mary Sullivan, Jennie De Roo, and Messrs. T. L. Horne, Steensohn, T. H. Cobb, C. H. Unbehaun, A. J. Brooke. Mr. and Mrs. Shelton, and the musicians, Dave and Edward Lunderberg, were among invading host, and a right merry

THE MORAINE.

H. B. Clark, who has returned from the east is a guest at the Moraine.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Marcy entertained W. C. Hatley at dinner at the Moraine, Sunday.

Mrs. La Motte entertained Grosbeck Walsh, of Chicago, at dinner at the Moraine, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Keith and family are at the Moraine, where they will spend the balance of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hamilton, who have been spending the summer at the Moraine, have returned to St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wakem have returned from their eastern trip and are spending a few weeks at the Moraine.

P. A. Otis, of 2023 Prairie avenue, Chicago, who is at the Moraine, entertained a party of six at dinner Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Carlton, of Cripple Creek, Col., are spending a few weeks at the Moraine before leaving for an extended trip in the east.

Mrs. H. O. Stone and Mrs. Allen Smith are among the recent arrivals at the Moraine who have taken rooms for the remainder of the season.

We regret to announce that as the Moraine did not receive sufficient encouragement to carry out the proposition contained in the circular issued last week, to keep open during the winter, the management has decided to close the hotel for the season, Thursday, October 9.

Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS-LETTER.

O ye people! have ye wasted the golden moments of never returning time in taking a substitute for the genuine Rocky Mountain Tea made by the Madison Medicine Co. George B. Cummings. 1-cg
