

SHIELDS-VOSE NUPTIALS.

The wedding of Miss Irene Shields and Dr. William Eugene Vose, assistant surgeon of the United States Army, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Thursday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, was the happy culmination of a pretty romance which began in Manila last winter. That cupid but laughs at distance has been clearly proven by Dr. Vose, who came 12,000 miles to claim his charming bride.

The wedding was a brilliant military affair, and one of the prettiest ever witnessed on the North Shore.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. A. Pfautsch in the presence of the immediate families, a few friends and relatives. The wedding march and the music during the ceremony was played by Mr. Arthur Bowers, organist of Trinity church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bridal party consisted of Miss Carolyn Shields, the maid of honor, and Miss Viola Shields, as bridesmaid; Lieutenant A. Mc C. Wilson, of the 20th Infantry, who served Dr. Vose as best man, and Lieutenant Joseph W. Beacham, and Lieutenant John L. DeWitt, both of the 20th Infantry, U. S. A., at Fort Sheridan, who acted as ushers.

The bride was handsomely gowned in a creation of white satin and chiffon, elaborately trimmed with point lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses; the maid of honor wore a handsome lace gown, with trimmings of light blue chiffon, and carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley, and the bridesmaid was daintily attired in white organdie, and carried a shower bouquet of Jacqueminot roses, tied with broad, red satin ribbon, the bride, with her attendants, on either side, thus forming the national colors, for the wedding was distinctly military in every detail. Throughout the house the flag was everywhere in evidence. The drawing room, in which the bridal tower of green was erected, was in green and white, with a profusion of palms, ferns, and white flowers; the library and living room were in red and green, with quantities of brilliant salvia, and the dining room decorations and the table were entirely in green and white.

At the reception which followed Chicago, Fort Sheridan, Lake Forest and other adjoining North Shore towns were well represented.

Among the out-of-town guests present, and who have been entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Shields during the past week, were the groom's parents, Colonel and Mrs. W. P. Vose, of New Orleans, where Colonel Vose is in command of the artillery corps at Jackson Barracks; Mrs. W. S. Volkmar, of California; Miss Suzanne Risteen, of Boston, and Captain and Mrs. Elmore F. Taggart, of the 6th Infantry, of Fort Leavenworth.

The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful, and included several very handsome checks.

Dr. and Mrs. Vose left last evening for the south and after a brief wedding trip will be stationed at Columbia Barracks, near Nashville, Tennessee.

HIGHLAND PARK WOMAN'S CLUB.

The Woman's Club held its initial meeting of the season Tuesday afternoon in the public library building. The meeting was devoted to business and to the bearing of the very interesting reports made by Mrs. Fisher and Miss Stedman, who represented the Highland Park Woman's Club at the biennial meeting at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Laura D. Fessenden, Mrs. Mrs. Frank Green, Mrs. Van Riper and Mrs. George H. Campbell are the delegates and alternates elected to the represent the Highland Park Woman's Club at the State Federation of Women's Club to be held October 15, 16 and 17, at Champaign, Ill., and at which Mrs. Laura D. Fessenden is to read a paper on the evening of October 14.

The club is rejoicing in the acquisition of a collection of dainty china and spoons, which it has recently purchased, and through the courtesy of Mr. Price, of the North Shore Gas Company, gas has been put in for the use of the club, all which adds greatly to the pleasure of its social functions.

INGLESIDE.

Attorney F. O. Murdock, of Chicago, was one of the guests of the week at the Ingleside.

T. S. Roberts, of Mason City, Iowa, attorney for the Northwestern railroad, is spending the week at the Ingleside.

Peter Dolese, of Dolese Bros., paving contractors, who is here personally superintending the paving and improvement of our streets, is a guest at the Ingleside.

Robert M. Weir was host at a very pleasant dinner at the Ingleside, Monday evening, having as his guests Arthur Hensel, of Chicago, and C. T. Ford, manager of the telephone exchange.

Alderman E. A. Warren and family, who have been guests at the Ingleside during the erection of their new residence on Central avenue, left Saturday to take possession of their new home.

Highland Park, Ill., October 2, 1902 — Editor of THE SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER:—Dear Sir—Through your paper I wish to express my sincere and deep gratitude to those who so kindly and generously gave their services for my benefit and to my friends and acquaintances who contributed to its success. The amount raised just paid the expenses of my illness and I thank one and all for the thoughtfulness, sympathy and help given me.

Sincerely yours,
ALBERT LARSON.
