ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Remember our man, John H. Sheuhen, for sheriff, at the November election.

Charles S. Diehl and family have taken possession of Dr. Babcock's house on Prospect avenue. Mr. Diehl is the assistant general manager of the Associated Press.

We dare say Father Madden left no sincerer mourner than his faithful collic, Dick, Poor Dick. It is most pathetic to see him roam aimlessly about, inconsolably lonely, not able to understand the absence of his good, kind master.

If any one fancies that tempting goodies are the only things displayed at Frank B. Green's bakery, he should call there this week and view the painting now on exhibition that Mr. Green has just completed, entitled "The Fireside"

A. C. Anderson is not having his home policed, neither was the whole front of his house riddled with bullets. Mr. Anderson and his family were away from their home a few hours Sunday afternoon, on their return a bullet hole was discovered in the front door, and the bullet itself was found Monday morning lodged in one of the chairs in their parlor.

William Graham, who has been enjoying a pleasant visit with his old schoolmate, Colonel H. P. Davidson, returned this week to Island Pond, Vt., where he has charge of the United States Custom House. His wife, also an old schoolmate of the Colonel, will remain several weeks longer, as Mr. Trover and wife, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, have taken Edward Lang's residence, which they will take possession of next week. Mr. Grover is the critic and manuscript reviewer at Rand & McNally's.

The bridal dinner party, -at which Mrs. Charles C. Yoe was hostess Tuesday evening, was one of the most charming and unique functions of the week. The table decorations were in green and white, with white roses and orange blossoms, and the dinner cards were dainty little souvenirs in water colors, with sprays of the bridal blossom. Covers were laid for fourteen, and the guests were: Miss Irene Shields, in whose honor the dinner was given, Misses Carolyn and Viola Shields, Miss Suzanne Risteen, of Boston, Miss Sarah Walker, of Chicago, Dr. W. E. Vose, Lieutenant Wilson, Lieutenant DeWitt, Lieutenat Beacham, Captain Mearns, William P. Beall, of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Yoe.

That cupid has not been idle is evidenced in the number of engagement announcements, and approaching marriages, that promise to make

October a gala month on the North Shore. The wedding of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Vose will be followed by the marriage of Miss Alice Leavenworth, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., to Frederick P. Boynton next week; on October 15, the interesting event of the double wedding of Miss Pauline Hankey and Dr. Lane, and Miss Olive Hankey and Rev. Branscombe, will take place in the Episcopal church at Glencoe; the wedding invitations of Miss Grace Adele Lasher and Mr. Berry, of Evanston, are looked for daily, and the latter part of the month will witness the celebration of the nuptials of Miss Francis Van Shaick, and Mr. Clinch.

The Sabbath School Rally at the Presbyterian church last Sunday was a glorious success. The program was interesting throughout. Superintendent Everett presided with earnestness and enthusiasm. The music, under direction of Mr. William Goodridge, assisted by the orchestra of the school, was enthusiastic. The primary department was represented by Van Bergen, who in a characteristic way, recited a poem, and the intermediate department by Hamilton Patton, who, as usual, captivated the audience by his clear and emphatic rendition of a Rally Day poem. The attraction of the day was the Bible Story, told in her inimitable manner, by Miss Frayser, of Louisville, Ky., who has national fame in this work. The school starts with renewed enthusiasm into the winter's work.

Miss Evva R Egan left last week for the east to be bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Leavenworth and Frederick P. Boynton, which will take place Wednesday, October 8, at Wilkesbarre, Pa. Miss Elsie Boulton who is at present in the east, will also act as bridesmaid. Miss Leavenworth has chosen the other attendants of her bridal, which is to be very large, from among her eastern girl friends. Mr. Boynton, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Hugh Johnston, of Chicago, and his groomsmen, Messrs. Harry and De-Koven Towner, left for the east this week. The wedding, which is to be a church affair, will be followed by a large reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Leavenworth. After an extended wedding trip Mr. Boynton and his bride will return to Highland Park where they will be at home to their friends the second and last Wednesdays in December and January.

RAVINIA.

J. Mitchell is home for a few days.

J. K. Lake has returned from a pleasant sojourn of several weeks at Mackinac.

After the rain and gloom of the early part of the week the Ravinia woods, with their rich autumn tints of russets and browns and greens and reds, seemed unusually glorious Wednesday.
