

M. E. Hammond

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1902.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 20.

Furnished rooms or lower flat to rent. Inquire Ladies' Bazaar. * * * Mrs. William Tillman spent several days last week with friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Roebing were entertained at tea Sunday evening by Mrs. William Tillman.

The Luncheon Club had an unusually pleasant time Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. A. Pfanstiehl.

Wanted—4 good cooks, 3 competent second girls; 2 general girls; 1 child's nurse, at Ladies' Bazaar. *

Miss Maude DeLawn, of Colorado Springs, Col., who came east to study art, will spend the winter with Miss Wycoff.

Mrs. B. A. Smith left Tuesday for Omaha, where she will spend three weeks with her aged mother, Mrs. Elsie A. Lowe.

Mr. Bohl returned last week from a most enjoyable trip through Iowa, while he has been visiting childhood friends and scenes.

Arthur Wycoff is enjoying a pleasant visit from his mother, who will spend the month of October with him in Highland Park.

Mrs. Vaughn, who has been the guest of her cousin, Miss Wycoff, for sometime past, returned Friday to her home in Keokuk, Iowa.

Rev. Finkbeiner spent several days this week at his old home in Dixon, Ill., where he was called to officiate at the funeral of a friend.

Rev. P. A. Wolcott will officiate at the marriage of Miss Van Shaick to Mr. Chinch. It is to be a pretty home wedding and will take place Wednesday, October 22.

Mrs. A. E. Dorsey, during her illness last week, enjoyed a pleasant little visit of a few days from her sisters, Mrs. B. Livesay, and children and Mrs. H. C. Lowe, of Hyde Park.

Rev. E. A. Kelly, pastor of St. Cecilia's church, Chicago, and Chaplain of 7th Regiment I. N. G., was the guest of Father Morrissey, Tuesday.

See Blomdahl's display of new fall and winter shoes. Very latest styles. The finest ever shown in Highland Park. Bayse block, Central avenue.

Judge Hibbard, since September 1, has been holding court in the new court rooms, which are located in the fire department building, where all cases will be tried before him hereafter.

Mrs. F. D. Hull, with her daughter, Mrs. Richardson, of Kansas City, Mo., were the guests of Mrs. H. R. Green last week. Mrs. T. D. Hull will make her future home in Kansas City.

Everett L. Millard was one of the ushers at the wedding of Miss Corinne Calhoun and William H. Gray, Jr., of Boston, which took place at the Virginia hotel, Wednesday evening.

Everyone will be glad to hear that Mr. George B. Cummings is so much better that Tuesday the doctor granted him an "honorable discharge" from the hospital, when he returned to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Goldberg, while their store was closed last week, accompanied by their sons, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldberg in Chicago, where they attended their New Year's services.

A merry house party of out-of-town guests, consisting of Mrs. W. Kretsinger, of Fort Madison, Iowa, Miss Bennett, of Anna, Ill., Miss Windell, of Valparaiso, Ind., Miss Ball, of Chicago, and Miss Berry, of Evanston, is being delightfully entertained this week at the home of Mrs. W. S. Lasher.

Dr. Pomeroy has opened offices in the Bergen block opposite the Northwestern depot. As will be noticed in another column Dr. Pomeroy's residence for the coming winter will be with Mr. Cushing on Hazel avenue.

The Ladies Choral Club of Highland Park will open its third year on Wednesday, October 15, at 3:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. George S. Cole, St. Johns avenue, near Vine. Anyone interested in vocal music is cordially invited.

Rev. Parkhurst, of Evanston, was here in the interest of the temperance cause last week, owing to the bad weather, was obliged to abandon the tent services Sunday, and spoke in the morning at the United Evangelical church, and in the evening at the Baptist church.

Benjamin Morton, who has been visiting his uncle, Thomas Morton, left Wednesday to spend several weeks with relatives in Chicago, his brother will join him later and together they will visit in Bloomington, Ill., before returning to their home in California.

Dr. and Mrs. Pomeroy were the last guests to leave the Moraine for this season. They have selected Highland Park as their permanent home and will probably build during the coming year. For the coming winter they will live with the Cushing's in their home on Hazel avenue.

Highland Park was well represented at the bible conference, which was held last week in Chicago, at the United Evangelical church. Among those who attended were Mrs. Hintz, who read a very interesting paper on "What Constitutes a Live League," Rev. Finkbeiner, Mrs. Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. F. Noerenberg, Misses Gertrude Brand, Olive Haefele and Maude Moon, and Fred Moon.

W. E. Brand, Insurance Agent.

Mrs. Kenneth R. Smoot was unexpectedly summoned home from Ocean City, Maryland, where she has been spending the summer, by the illness of her daughter, Miss Eleanor Smoot, who is ill with typhoid fever in a hospital in Evanston. Mrs. Smoot, who is with her daughter, was present at the last regular meeting of the school board.

Mrs. Leta R. Lasher has issued invitations to the wedding of her daughter, Miss Grace Adele Lasher, and Thomas Lemmon Berry, of Evanston. Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl will officiate at the marriage which will take place at the home of the bride's mother, Tuesday evening, October 14, at 8 o'clock. The bride will be at home after November third at "Twin Elms."

Mrs. John Snyder, on the occasion of her birthday, entertained the young people at a pleasant informal party at her home Monday evening. Among those present were: Misses Nellie Rudolph, Ida Rudolph, Alice Evans, Ethel Aldrich, Clara Bock, and Mabel Ruel, of this city; Misses Alta Cale, Rachel Rudolph, Messie Rudolph, of Winnetka; May Welch, of Lake Forest; Messrs. Charles T. Ford, George Rudolph, Lem Rudolph, George Bock, Charles Snyder, of this city; Irving Evans, of Winnetka. The house was prettily decorated throughout with a profusion of smilax and salvia. There was a beautiful birthday cake with its traditional lighted candles. Great fun followed when Mrs. Snyder attempted so cut the birthday pie presented to her by J. S. Reesman, as a souvenir of the joke that had been played upon himself at the Ingleside for the pie was filled with cotton. There was music and singing and games, and dancing concluded the merry evening.