

Illustrated Fur Fashion Book

JUST OUT. Showing all the New Styles in Fine Fur Garments. MAILED FREE.

Send your address.

JOHN T. SHAYNE & CO.

IMPORTERS AND MANUFACTURERS

FINE FURS

187-189 State Street

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

When writing to the above firm kindly mention the Sheridan Road News-Letter

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mrs. K. R. Smoot will open her Highland Park home today.

Mr. Cushing will take possession of his Hazel avenue home today.

Albert Larson returns to his old post at the news stand to-morrow.

Mrs. J. W. Mauck is spending a couple of weeks in Washington, D.C.

For Sale—An oak bed-room suite; nearly new. Apply at NEWS LETTER office.

The Gray Electric building is being occupied by the Lignum Invention Co.

The past week witnessed the departure of the summer colony from Wildwood.

Miss Josephine Connor, of Boston, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. G. H. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Britain and daughter, Miss Belzer, of Chicago, were the guests of Mrs. S. Levin over Sunday.

There was a slight fire Sunday evening in the Highland Park bank, which, however, resulted in little or no damage.

Avoid the typhoid fever epidemic by drinking freely of Sparkling Spring Water, which is a good, wholesome drink. Phone 984.

The Catholic Lady Foresters will give their euchre party, which was postponed last week, in the Woodmen's hall, Wednesday evening, October 15.

The Misses Mooney entertained a party of sixteen friends at a delightful ping-pong party one evening last week. The majority were out-of-town guests.

The Highland Park Club will give its opening reception and dancing party of the season at the club house this evening. The committee has been unsparing in its efforts to make this the red-letter occasion in the club's history, and judging from the universal interest manifested in the event, it promises to justify the rosiest expectations, and to be a very brilliant and enjoyable affair.

The Christian Culture class of the Baptist church held its initial meeting of the season Tuesday evening at the home of Rev. Edwin Seldon, where it will continue to meet the same evening of each week throughout the winter. The class attendance has doubled that of last year, and everything points to an unusually interesting and successful winter's study. There will be three divisions to the course, one in Bible reading, one in Conquest Missions, and one in Sacred Literature and Biography.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray, whose marriage took place last week in Trinity church, Chicago, instead of taking a long wedding trip, very sensibly came right out to Highland Park and took possession of their cozy new home, "The Gables," on Lincoln avenue, which Mr. Murray had prepared for his bride, and where a very pleasant reception awaited them, as a number of Highland Park girl friends had previously invaded the house and beautifully decorated it throughout with autumn leaves and flowers in honor of the bride's homecoming.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of the service next Sunday evening at the First Baptist church. Beginning next Sunday evening, Pastor Seldon will preach a series of sermons on "Heaven," as follows: October 12, "The Beginning of Heaven;" October 19, "Is Heaven a Place?"; October 26, "Knowledge and Occupation in Heaven;" November 2, "Recognition in Heaven;" November 9, "Degrees of Glory in Heaven;" November 16, "The Inauguration of Heaven;" November 23, "The Joys of Heaven;" November 30, "Is Heaven for All?"; December 7, "The Way to Heaven." Service begins at 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome.

The approaching nuptials of Miss Grace Adele Lasher have been the occasion of a very pleasant round of gaities in honor of the prospective bride and her guests. The tin shower given by Miss Lasher a cousin of the bride, at her home, in Evanston, Wednesday afternoon was one of the happiest jolliest events of the week. Among other guests the party included the chapter of the Gamma Phi Beta society, of which Miss Lasher is a member, thus affording a very pleasant reunion of old school friends. Miss Marie Ball, of Chicago, who will serve Miss Lasher as maid of honor Tuesday, was hostess at a delightful luncheon at the Windemere for the bride Thursday. Covers were laid for twelve. The party included the following Miss Grace Adele Lasher and her out-of-town friends, Miss Bennett, Miss Windell, Miss Berry; and Mrs. L. M. Bergen, and Misses Ethel Turnley, Helen Morgan and Frances Hawkins of Highland Park. Mrs. L. M. Bergen is hostess at a card party in honor of Miss Lasher this afternoon, and the entire bridal party will be entertained at a tea Saturday evening at Twin Elms by the bride's mother.

She's a radiant, witching, wondrous gem, that beautiful blushing wife of mine. She is an angel on earth, so you can be, only take Rocky Mountain Tea. George B. Cummings. 1-cg

Miss
leave S
tario, C
after th
Rev.
Lake V
attend
Mrs. E
guests
weeks.
pastor
church
Mrs.
Ives,
spendi
relative
Tuesda
C. A.
earlier
very m
The
transf
hands
beauty
day
recept
of the
their p
ler an
music
evenin
with the a surpri
a ren
who h
her ta
to be
sang
and i
plaus
gotter
Gavit
dienc
Rose
wont
of the
the h
very
their
less
Mrs.
tribu
affor
tunit
and
tions
wood
well
whic
and
ing
chur