

HIGHWOOD.

Miss Frances Horne expects to leave Saturday for Arkona Ontario, Canada, to remain until after the Christmas holidays.

Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Hay, of Lake Villa, who came Tuesday to attend the reception to Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Lawler, will be the guests of Mrs. C. Gillette for two weeks. Mr. Hay was formerly pastor of the Highwood M. E. church.

Mrs. Herbert Strang, nee Grace Ives, who with her husband is spending several weeks with his relatives at Wadsworth, Ill., spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. C. A. Ives, who was quite ill earlier in the week, but is now very much better.

The Highwood M. E. church transformed by loving, happy hands into a bower of autumn beauty, was the scene Tuesday evening of a delightful reception given by the members of the church as a welcome to their pastor, Rev. Hiram F. Lawler and his bride. A charming musical program added to the evening's pleasure. The quartet, with Miss Fox as soloist, gave the audience a most enjoyable surprise. Miss Fox, who possesses a remarkably sweet voice, but who has been modestly concealing her talents all this while, promises to be often in demand. Mr. Cobb sang in his usual masterful style, and in response to the hearty applause which followed, gave "Forgotten," as an encore. Miss Gavitt fairly captivated the audience with her rich, mezzo voice, in Mayoe, and mighty jak a Rose" rendered with all her wonted esprit. The young ladies of the Epworth League dispensed the hospitality of the evening and very attractive they were with their dainty-laden trays. Needless to say how deeply Mr. and Mrs. Lawler appreciated this tribute in their honor which afforded them a pleasant opportunity of meeting all their friends and of receiving their congratulations. Highland Park, Highwood and Fort Sheridan were all well represented at the reception which proved one of the happiest and most enjoyable of the gathering for which the Highwood M. E. church is proverbial.
