FRIDAY, OCT. 10, 1902.

GLENCOE.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buhenhoff are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter Monday, October 6.

The ball given by the Glencoe Volunteer Fire Department Thursday evening proved a grand success.

Do not forget the interesting "free" entertainment at the school house this evening, Friday, October 10.

Mrs. T. B. Beddoe is hostess at a tea this afternoon given in honor of her sister, Mrs. Lash, of Toronto, Canada.

Miss Mabel Beddoe will be at home until after the holidays when she will return to Boston to continue her musical studies.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shroeder went to Desplaines, Thursday, to attend the wedding of their cousin, Miss Sarah...

During the doleful, rainy days of last week one of Glencoe's bright young lads remarked that "the sun was becoming almost as scarce as coal."

Mrs. C. W. Allison, accompanied by her son, Douglas Allison, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gamblos, at Fort Washington, Pa.

Mrs. Charles Shaw is entertaining this afternoon at a little informal tea for the young people in honor of Miss Pauline and Miss Olive Hankey.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Miller are anticipating with a great deal of of pleasure the return of their son, Ralph, who is expected home very soon from Alaska, where he has been for the past three years and a half.

Among those who assisted Thursday evening in the "Trip Abroad" were: Misses Hazel Newhall, Agnes Newhall, Mildred Fanning and Margaret Winslow, who welcomed the tourists in Germany.

Col. and Mrs. W. V. Jacobs entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of the prospective brides, Misses Pauline and Olive Hankey, and their fiancés, Dr. F. A. Lane and Rev. C. H.
Branscombe.

Miss Grace Fuller, who returned last week from her European trip, and has been spending the week week in Glencoe, leaves tomorrow for New York to spend the winter.
Mrs. Fuller expects to join her daughter in the east a little later.

A merry little party of six consisting of Mr. and Mrs. H. P.
Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Newhall went down to Winnetka, Thursday evening and enjoyed a brief but pleasant "trip abroad."

The Woman's Library club held its quarterly meeting at the home of Mrs. Andrew McLeish, Thursday afternoon from 2:30 until 5 o'clock. Miss Mary Krout entertained the club with an interesting and characteristic account of her travels, and the afternoon proved most enjoyable and profitable.

The double wedding of Miss Pauline Hankey and Dr. Francis A. Lane, and Miss Olive Hankey and Rev. Clarence H. Branscombe will take place in the Glencoe Episcopal church, of which Mr.

Branscombe is the rector, Wednesday morning, October 15, at 11:30 o'clock. The marriage ceremony will be followed by a large reception at the home of the brides' parents. After a brief wedding journey they will return to Glencoe, where they will be at home to their friends after November 15.

Realizing that suburban communities, during the long winter months, are more or less dependent upon their own resources, both for amusement and profitable entertainment, a number of the public-spirited citizens in Glencoe have very kindly provided for this in a most generous and praiseworthy manner and a system of free entertainments is to be inaugurated, commencing tonight, with a most delightful evening with William L. Tomlins, the well-known musical wonder, who will speak on "Music as a Force in Education." These entertainments, which are absolutely free to the public, are to be given every Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the school house. The chairmen of the various committees are as follows: Music, H. P. Williams; Lectures, Dr. M. W. Darling; Art and Science, F. Dundas Todd; Local History, Andrew McLeish; Child Study, Mrs. Andrew Mc-Leish. A very interesting series have been arranged with programs from week to week of a widely varying character. The program is not fully completed beyond December 19, but will be ready soon: October 10, "Music," Mr.

William L. Tomlins; October 17, "Three or Four Things We Ought to Know," M. W. Darling; October 24, "Birds of Glencoe and the North Shore," Frank Woodruff, of the Academy of Science; November 31, "Heart vs. Head," Elizabeth Harrison, of the Chicago Kindergarten College; November 7, Musical Concert, Artists to be announced; November 14, "Booker T. Washington, and the Tuskegee Work," Superintendent Orville T. Bright; November 21, "Spinning Tops," Dr. Henry Crew, of the Northwestern University; November 28, "The North Shore Flowers," Dr. Cole, of the University of Chicago; December 5, Concert, conducted by members of the African M. E. Church; December 12, "How to Enjoy Pictures," F. Dundas Todd; December 19, "How to Succeed," John L. Day. In nearly all of the lectures, liberal use will be made of the stereopticon.
