5 Great Irrigated Valleys

ARKANSAS VALLEY, COLORADO. Altitude 3,400 to 4,600 feet; beet sugar factories, thousands of acres of alfalfa, millions of cantaloupes, extensive orchards, flocks of sheep; largest irrigated section in the U. S. Extensive cattle feeding and dairy interests; population doubled in five years.

PECOS VALLEY, NEW MEXICO. Altitude 3,000 to 4,000 feet; 175 miles long; on edge of great plains' cattle pastures, affording profitable home market for alfalfa and grain; noted for its large orchards and fine quality of fruit and vegetables; artesian belt with 300 flowing wells.

RIO GRANDE VALLEY, NEW MEXICO. Altitude 3,700 to 5,300 feet; 350 miles long; great sheep raising section; mining in adjacent mountains; adapted to fruit raising and small farms.

SALT RIVER VALLEY, ARIZONA. Altitude 1,000 feet; 60 miles long and 20 miles wide; special industries—early oranges, live stock, vegetables, small fruits, alfalfa, bee culture.

SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY, CALIFORNIA. Altitude 50 to 400 feet; 250 miles long, 50 miles wide; wheat raising, live stock, oil wells, alfalfa, raisin and wine grapes, olives, figs, citrus and deciduous fruits, almonds, walnuts; lumbering and mines in mountains.

ALL FIVE VALLEYS have never-failing water supply, extensive systems of irrigating ditches and rich soil, insuring profitable crops. Pleasant climate, especially in winter. Thriving towns, affording good markets. Directly reached by the SANTA FE.

SPECIAL NOTICE WOMAN'S CLUB.
 The next meeting of the Highland Park Woman's club, which was to have been held Tuesday, October 14, has been indefinitely postponed.

AT INGLESIDE FARM.
 Owing to the unprecedented bad weather the sale at the Ingleside farm was postponed from the date originally set for it until Sunday, October 12, at 10 a. m., when it will come off rain or shine. The Ingleside farm is one-half mile west of Highland Park. Refreshments will be served on the grounds and a general good time is assured.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
 Rev. F. Heede, of Evanston, will hold a Swedish gospel service in the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is expected that this service will be permanently held at the above time and place from week to week. Swedes, Scandinavians and all who are interested are cordially invited.

FORT SHERIDAN.
 F. M. Hunter, of Peru, Ind., spent Saturday and Sunday at the Post, visiting A. B. Hollabird and family.
 Captain and Mrs. P. A. Read, of Chicago, are spending several days with Major Wood and family.
 M. Harr, a former business man of Whiting, Ind., was in highwood this week looking for a location.
 The Armour Institute team came out Saturday and played the Battery team which defeated the former 15 to 0.
 Work is progressing rapidly on the Sheridan Road through the government reservation north to Lake Forest.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Wilson, who have been visiting their son, Lieutenant Alford M. Wilson, returned Saturday to Franklin, Pa.
 Captain Jarvis, of the 4th Infantry, formerly stationed here for a number of years, called on friends at the Post, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.
 Lieutenant-Colonel Rodman, of the 20th Infantry, who has been enjoying a leave of absence in Louisville, Ky., is expected to arrive at Fort Sheridan, Sunday.
 The announcement made last week of the engagement of Miss Edith Pardee, daughter of Mrs. L. D. Pardee, and a sister of Lieutenant Austin Pardee, to Lieutenant Alford McC. Wilson, of the 20th Infantry, has caused a great deal of pleasant interest in the social circles of Highland Park and the Post.

Saturday, October 4, of typhoid fever. His remains were brought back to the Post, where the military funeral services were held from his late residence Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Post Chaplain Brockman officiating. With flags at half mast, the funeral cortege, under military escort, marched to the Northwestern station where a special train was in waiting to take the remains on to Washington, D. C., for interment at the national cemetery at Arlington. Dr. Gilmore, of Chicago, attended the funeral, and A. B. Jones, of Pittsburg, who also accompanied the remains to Washington. Captain F. M. Fuller, who was a brother of Chief Justice Melville W. Fuller, also leaves a widow, who is at the Sanitarium in Kenosha, convalescing from an illness, and three children.

RAVINIA.

Mrs. P. Winchester has not been as well as usual this week.
 One afternoon last week two young ladies from "Ledgemere" drove down to Stipes' farm for crab apples. While they were busily engaged loading the fruit in the surrey the horse suddenly took fright and ran away. Fortunately the young ladies were not in the vehicle, although the horse, in spite of his scare, safely turned all the corners until he got on the Sheridan drive, and then went straight home. The coachman, seeing him coming back alone, met him and drove back to Stipes' for the young ladies.

The grand masque and civic ball which is to be given by the third squadron of the 2d Cavalry, will take place at Fort Sheridan Park, Saturday night, October 11. The committee has worked most assiduously to make the entertainment a brilliant success and to bar out all objectionable features. Tickets may be secured at Laegler's, where the prizes are also now on exhibition. Remember the cavalry boys are hosts at this party and they anticipate a merry evening.
 Captain F. M. Fuller, of the Second Cavalry, U. S. A., was taken to the Chicago hospital last Wednesday week, where he died,

This seems to have been an eventful horse week in Ravina. Not a little excitement was occasioned at Genty's horse farm Tuesday night, when his horses, which include many valuable animals belonging to people in Chicago, Evanston and Lake Forest, either having discovered a broken gap in the fence enclosing the pasture, or having themselves broken a portion of it down, broke loose and ran away. Mr. Genty, after a long and exciting chase, which the darkness made even more difficult, eventually succeeded in recapturing all of them.
