The Mission band, of the United Evangelical church, held a "sock" social Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Maechtle.

A beautiful new cement walk has been placed in front of St. Mary's church property. The work was done by Lindblom.

The pastor and parishioners of St. Mary's church more than appreciated the recent gift of Mr. Lindblom of a fine new carriage block.

Wanted—2 good general servants. $5.00. At the Ladies' Bazaar. **

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heimsath, who have been spending the summer with Mrs. Muehlke, returned this week to their home in California.

Miss Lottie Brand, after several weeks of sightseeing, is now settled in Berlin for the winter, where she will continue her musical studies.

Mrs. Robert Gregory gave a very pretty tea at Ledgemere last Tuesday week in honor of Mrs. William Murray, who came here a bride a few weeks ago.

Quite a large party of Highland Park people attended the interesting lecture delivered by Judge Ewing on Christian Science, Friday evening in Evanston.

J. L. Smith, principal of the grammar school entertained fourteen teachers from Chicago and other points in Cook county at a picnic party last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Boynton have been to New York City, Norfolk and Richmond, Va., and are now on their way to Ashville, N. C., where they intend to make quite a little stay.

Mrs. James Prindiville on Saturday evening was hostess at a charming dinner in honor of Miss Van Schaick and Mr. George O. Clinch. The table decorations were pink, and covers were laid for ten.

There has been general rejoicing over the beginning of the season for the Thomas concerts today and several of the young ladies who are real music lovers, went in to attend the initial concert this afternoon.

H. Gunn, of Australia, who has been spending the summer with his sisters, Mrs. James Grant and Mrs. H. Ewart, left Tuesday for an extended trip through Canada and Scotland, before returning to his home in Melbourne.

It is safe to say that no other prospective bride has ever been more feted since the first announcement of her engagement than has Miss Frances Van Schaick, whose many friends seem to delight in showering her with charming little social affairs given in her honor.

Several charming dinner parties preceded the reception at the Highland Park club, Friday evening. Among the number who entertained were: Mrs. H. S. Vail, who was hostess at a dinner party of twelve; and Mrs. W. D. Messinger, who entertained the juniors at a dinner, covers being laid for ten.

Yellow (roses) and pink (cheeks) formed a pleasant combination of colors at a small, but select, dinner party given by Miss Grace Humphreys on Saturday evening, at Shore Acres, the beautiful home of her parents, Colonel and Mrs. Humphreys. Covers were laid for six and a most enjoyable time was spent by hostess and guests.

The Lady Foresters' euchre party which was given in the Woodmen's hall, Wednesday evening, proved

The ladies' first prize was awarded to Mrs. DeLacey of Waukegan, and the booby prize to Miss Josie Fagan. Mrs. John Duffy took the place of a gentleman and distinguished herself by carrying off the head prize, while the booby was awarded to Mayor Gibbs, of Highwood.

Mrs. Laura D. Fessenden and Mrs. G. H. Campbell left Tuesday for Champaign, Ill., to attend the State Federation of Women's clubs now being held there, and Mrs. Frank B. Green, accompanied by Mrs. Van Riper, who were also elected delegates to the convention left on Wednesday.

If all future events at the Highland Park clubhouse prove as enjoyable and successful as the opening reception and dancing party given last Friday evening, the members have a delightful season in prospect. Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. J. McGregor Adams, Mrs. W. D. Messinger and Mrs. James Prindiville were the hostesses of the evening and received the guests. A pleasant feature of the evening was the three distinct generations represented by the gathering. The club rooms were beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and in the diningroom the table decorations were daisies and red carnations, with crimson candles.

One of the prettiest functions of last week was the candlelight tea given for Miss Frances Van Schaick, at which Mrs. Nathan Corwith was hostess. The house was darkened and lighted throughout with the subdued soft glow of candlelight. The drawingroom and library were in red, with a profusion of scarlet and crimson flowers, while red candles shed a warm, rosy glow; in the diningroom white flowers and pink candles were used in the table decorations. Mrs. Corwith was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Ransom, and Miss Eliza Campbell, a niece. Master Nathan Corwith, Jr., who, in his debonair manner hospitably welcomed all the guests at the door, proved a charming master of ceremonies and was quite the lion of the occasion.
