

SCHOOL NOTES.

HIGH SCHOOL.

The lecture Friday evening was fine but poorly attended on account of the weather, a fact to be lamented, as Dr. Cole's lecture was very interesting and most instructive. This series of free lectures, which will continue through the winter, is intended for the people as well as the students. Three very instructive and entertaining lectures have already been planned and will be announced in a later issue.

The second football team defeated the second football team of the military academy Wednesday.

Saturday, October 18, the first team will play the Rugby team. It is to be regretted that Bergen, the captain and full back, having broken several tendons in the knee, will be incapacitated for the remainder of the season.

The pupils are very enthusiastic at present rehearsing their songs and yells.

Miss Pardee is preparing for a hallow'en party to be given for the students and faculty in the high school building, Friday evening, October 31.

The boys in the shop are very busy these days making key boards for the laboratories, and a newspaper and periodical case for the library.

These glorious fine days find the boys instead of working in the gymnasium making cross country runs.

Miss Easton, who has been ill all summer, is about to take a trip to Porto Rico for the benefit of her health.

It is interesting to note that the present attendance has increased 20 per cent over the attendance of the high school this time last year.

All the departments seem to be progressing and progressively.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

The school election on Saturday passed off very quietly and the two candidates, Messrs. Bowen Schumacher and Carlton Moseley, were unanimously elected. There was a special meeting of the board Monday evening at which both the newly elected members were present.

RAVINIA.

Mrs. E. Grant and Miss Smith enjoyed a pleasant day in Chicago on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McMullen and little son are expected home today from a delightful three weeks trip spent in the Catskills and New York.

FATHER MORRISSEY

APPOINTED TO SUCCEED THE LATE FATHER J. C. MADDEN

The Choice is a Most Agreeable One to the Members of St. Mary's Congregation, as He is Very Popular With All.

When the announcement was received last week that Rev. John J. Morrissey had been appointed by Bishop Muldoon to fill the vacancy in St. Mary's church caused by the death of Rev. Father Madden, its venerable pastor, while it occasioned no great surprise it made assurance doubly sure and brought delight to the people of the parish where, in the short period he has served as assistant pastor, Father Morrissey, who is one of the most popular of the young priests of the diocese, has won the respect and esteem of all. He was born at Rockford, Ill., in 1865, and took the nine years' classical course at St. Viator's College, Kankakee, Ill., the two years philosophical course at St. Mary's University, Baltimore, Md., and the four years theological course at the Niagara University, N. Y., and was ordained in May, 1890, by the late Most Rev. Archbishop Feehan. His first appointment was as temporary pastor at Sterling, Ill., after which he assisted Father Foster at Joliet for several years. Five years ago he was promoted to St. Rose of Lima's church in the Stock-Yards district of Chicago. Father Morrissey's appointment to this new charge in Highland Park is simply a just recognition of his five years of valiant service in this populous and difficult field where he had become a recognized factor in the life of this little world within itself.

ST. MARY'S BAZAAR.

Arrangements are well under way for the bazaar to be given by St. Mary's church, November 6 to 15, inclusive at Goldberg's hall.

Among the many things which will be sold are four fine, large-sized portraits of the late Very Rev. Archbishop Feehan, Bishop Muldoon; the late pastor Father Madden, and his successor, Father Morrissey; also a twenty-five ride ticket from Highland Park to Chicago, and a monthly commutation ticket, and a fine top buggy. Each evening a varied program with special features will be presented in addition to numerous other attractions. As Father Morrissey is the presiding genius of the occasion it is the desire of the parish to give material expression to their appreciation for their new pastor by crowning his efforts with marked success.

INGLESIDE.

Mrs. G. Bohl entertained a friend at the harvest home dinner at the Ingleside Tuesday.

F. Birstow, of Waukegan, enjoyed the harvest home dinner given at the Ingleside Monday.

Charles J. Sleeper, of Chicago, was the guest of Edmund Desjardines at the Ingleside Wednesday.

H. O. Turner, of the Chicago Evening Post, was one of the guests of the week at the Ingleside.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bannister entertained Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Restorick, of Chicago, at the annual game dinner at the Ingleside Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Streiber and daughter, Miss Alma Streiber, were the guests of Edward Ingalls at the annual game dinner given at the Ingleside Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Purdy and Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Evans were among the town guests who enjoyed the annual game dinner at the Ingleside Sunday.

Mrs. A. B. Lawrence of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Mrs. B. Day and little daughter Luella, of Chicago, were the guests of Dr. F. M. Ingalls at the Ingleside over Tuesday.

The harvest home festival which is being celebrated at the Ingleside this week has been a decided success, and notwithstanding the bad weather of Sunday the annual game dinner passed off delightfully, proving quite the popular feature of the festival week. The dining room, artistically decorated with autumn leaves and flowers and all kinds of farm products suggestive of the harvest days, presents a decidedly gala appearance and has added not a little to the spirit of the occasion. Among those who entertained friends at the annual game dinner given at the Ingleside Sunday were Mrs. E. H. Ingalls, who had as her guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ward, of Chicago, and Mrs. John Snyder and son Charles Snyder, of Highland Park, Mr. Robert Weir, who as one of the hosts of the day entertained a party of three friends from the city, consisting of Messrs. E. P. Deadrich, P. C. Gobel, Jr., and Otto Hensel.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Rev. F. Heeden, of Evanston, will hold a Swedish gospel service in the Baptist church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is expected that this service will be permanently held at the above time and place from week to week. Swedes, Scandinavians and all who are interested are cordially invited.

BERRY-LASHER NUPTIALS.

No prettier home wedding has ever taken place in Highland Park than the marriage of Miss Grace Adele Lasher, daughter of Mrs. Leta R. Lasher, and Mr. Thomas L. Berry, of Evanston, which was celebrated at Twin Elms, the home of the bride's mother, Tuesday evening, October 14. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl, and the Lohengrin march and wedding music was played by Miss Myrta Sweetland, assisted by Mr. Stacey, who rendered the "Holy City" very beautifully. The bridal party consisted of Mrs. W. H. Kretsinger, of Fort Madison, Iowa, who attended Miss Lasher as matron of honor, Miss Marie Ball, of Chicago, the maid of honor, and Miss Louise Windle, of Valparaiso, Ind., Miss Edith Berry, of Evanston, and Marie Bennett, of Auna, Ill., the bridesmaids. Mr. W. A. Stacey, of Knoxville, Tenn., formerly of Evanston, served Mr. Berry as best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Charles C. Willson, Albert E. Butler, of Chicago, George H. Miller, of Evanston, and W. H. Kretsinger, of Fort Madison, Iowa. It was a chrysanthemum wedding and yellow and white were the prevailing colors. The bride wore a very handsome gown of lace net over white taffeta, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, and a full tulle veil completed the costume. The maid of honor wore a beautiful gown of white brussels net with pearls, and carried yellow chrysanthemums; the other bridal attendants were attired in dainty gowns of white Persian lawn elaborately trimmed with lace, and wore girdles of yellow, and aigrettes of the same color in their hair, and carried long stemmed yellow chrysanthemums. The house was beautifully decorated throughout with autumn leaves and yellow and white chrysanthemums. The dining room was presided over by the members of the bride's sorority, Gamma Phi Beta of the Northwestern University. The wedding gifts were numerous and beautiful. Mr. and Mrs. Berry left the same evening on a short wedding trip and will be at home at Twin Elms after November 3.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

Be sure to register before Tuesday, October 28, if you want to vote at the November election.

It stands alone, it towers above. There's no other, it's nature's wonder, a warming poaltice to the heart of mankind. Such is Rocky Mountain Tea. 35c. George B. Cummings. 1-cg

Who's NEWS-LETTER are you reading?