Miss Alma C. Streiber attended the wedding of Miss Mabel Annette Darche and Melville Smail in Chicago Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Childs, who have been occupying the Little Log Cottage, will open their town house in Astor street November 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, of north Second street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a little baby girl in their midst a few days ago.

Mrs. Livesay, of Chicago, accompanied by her little son and daughter, Byron and Gladys, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. E. Dorsey.

Mrs. Suzanne Risteen, who has been the guest of Mrs. James H. Shields and family for several weeks past, returned to Boston Monday.

Mrs. E. J. Nally returned Saturday from Chicago, where she has been spending two weeks, and has as her guest Miss Pillsbury, of Boston.

Mrs. Henry E. Mason was hostess at an exceedingly pretty luncheon given for Miss Frances Van Schaick last Thursday. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. Anderson, who, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Sue, has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hilliard, expects to return to her home in Nashville, Tenn., this week.

The sale of the M. C. Quiston property on Sheridan road to Ben Freberg will be a success to most people. It is a choice location and Mr. Freberg has a bargain.

The ping pong tournament which was to have taken place at the Exmoor Country club last Saturday evening unfortunately had to be abandoned at the last moment.

Mrs. Edward A. Small has issued invitations to a reception to be given in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Moore, of New York City, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 5, from 4 until 6.

Miss M. L. Morris, formerly of Milwaukee, Wis, is still visiting friends at the Park. Miss Morris is an excellent dressmaker and should be induced to locate here permanently and open a dressmaking establishment.

Mrs. T. B. Watson, who, accompanied by her son Ralph, has been enjoying a pleasant and extended trip through Iowa and Minnesota, is expected home the last of the week.

Quite a number of young people went in from here Saturday to witness the ball game between the Chicago University and the Northwestern, which took place on Marshall field.

We are happy to announce that Richard Seldon, the little son of Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Seldon, who has been ill for several weeks with typhoid fever, is decidedly better this week.

The next regular meeting of the Highland Park Woman's club will be held next Tuesday, October 28. The subject will be, "An Afternoon in Old English Cathedrals," led by Mrs. Charles A. Winston.

Owing to the opening meeting of the Ossoli club, which was held yesterday afternoon, the meeting of the Luncheon-club was postponed until today, when the members, who met with Mrs. Ed Marrenner, had a very pleasant time.

Any man desiring an evening or dress-coat (swallow-tail) and vest of black broadcloth, not new, but in perfect order, can have the same as a gift by addressing Mrs E., P. O. box 165. Party should be rather broad-chested to insure fit—about 38 inches next to the skin.

A married ladies' sodality has been organized during the week at St. Mary's church, with the following as officers: Mrs. William Dooley, president; Mrs. H. Huber, treasurer; Mrs. H. Mills, secretary. A sodality for the young ladies of the parish was also formed, with Miss Stella Finney as president, Miss Margaret Mooney, treasurer, and Miss Ellen Cox, secretary.

A very pretty game was played on the academy field this week between the battery team from the Post and the Northwestern Military academy team. The game finished with the score of 6 to 0, in favor of the Fort Sheridan players.

Mrs. Williams, who, with her little son has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien P. Yoe, expects to return to Yellowstone Park next week, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Charlotte Yoe, who will remain west several months.

Grand preparations are being made for St. Mary's church bazaar, to be held at Goldberg's Hall, November 6 to 15, inclusive. Do not fail to secure a season ticket and thus avail yourself of all the privileges of the bazaar. Single tickets of admission, 25 cents; season tickets, $1.

The card party, which was to have been given at the Highland Park club last Saturday, was perforce a pleasure deferred and will be given this Saturday evening, October 25, instead. Mrs. Daniel Cobb and Mrs. H. S. Vail will be the hostesses of the evening and a very pleasant time is in prospect.

Mr. and Mrs. Kershaw, of Bloomington, the parents of Mrs. Fred P. Luther, spent Sunday with her at Ravinook. Besides his fine home in Bloomington, Mr. Mershaw owns and operates a 1200-acre farm in Adams county, in the Mississippi river bottom lands, where they raise 35 to 50 bushels of wheat per acre and pumpkins too big to describe.
