EIGHT PAGES

NO. 23.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

The registration on Tuesday was rather light.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Moses spent Sunday in Chicago.

Have you secured your season ticket for St. Mary's bazar.

Miss Florence Gill, of Oak Park, was the guest of Mrs. William Millard over Sunday.

A pleasant party of five came out from Chicago, Sunday, and enjoyed dinner at F. B. Green's.

Mrs. A. Moses enjoyed a pleasant visit from her mother, Mrs. A. Westfield, of Chicago, Sunday.

Mrs. T. B. Watson, with her nephew, is visiting Henry Loafher, a nephew, in Fontanelle, Iowa.

Miss Bessie James, who has been the guest of Miss Alma Freberg, has returned to her home in Jackson, Mich.

Do not forget to vote for John H. Sheahan, our own gallant townsman, next Tuesday morning bright and early.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. D.

returned from their wedding trip, Saturday, and will be at home to their friends after November 3, at Twin Elms.

October 28, Deerfield Township High School played Rugby at Kenilworth. Football was the game—score 22 to 0—in favor of our high school.

Miss Julie Cummins will entertain a party of twelve young people at a charming dinner preceding the phantom party at the Highland Park club this evening.

St. Mary's Bazar will open Wednesday evening at Goldberg's hall with a grand military concert to be given by the 20th Infantry band of Fort Sheridan.

The Horse Show has been the occasion of not a few delightful dinner parties.

The Highland Park Pleasure club will give dances in Goldberg's opera house every Thursday evening during the season.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Lover, of North Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Fitzgerald and little daughter were the guests Sunday of Mrs. Alexander Robertson.

Miss Hazel Clampitt, of Wilmette, was the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Clamitt, several days this week before leaving for Denver, Colo., where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. S. F. Knox was hostess at a delightful birthday dinner party at her home Saturday evening. The table decorations in green and white were extremely pretty and artistic and covers were laid for ten.

Mr. and Mrs. Basye have decided to close their home on Central avenue for the season, and will leave today for Fargo, S. D., where, if the climate proves beneficial to Mr. Basye, who is suffering from asthma, they will spend the winter, but if not, they will go on to California.

There will be English services at Zion Evangelical Lutheran church on West Central avenue, next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock; Rev. P. T. Brockman, chaplain of 20th Regiment of Fort Sheridan, will deliver the sermon. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

This week witnessed the departure to the city of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Childs, and Mr. and Mrs. Lucien P. Yoe and family, all of whom will be greatly missed from the social circles of Highland Park to which they have added not a little in many pleasant ways during the past season.

The first meeting of the Ossoli club, which was held at the club house last Thursday afternoon, proved a very pleasant event. It was guest day and this in conjunction with it being the initial meeting of the season, brought out a brilliant gathering, which filled the pleasant rooms. A paper on "Love and Marriage in Modern Fiction," was read by Mrs. H. P. Newman. The rooms were attractively decorated, the floral and table decorations being green and red. The hostesses of the afternoon were Mesdames Paul Smith, H. S. Vail and B. Cummins. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Daniel Cobb, who officiated at the request of Mrs. Paul Smith, who was to have poured, but who was unavoidably absent.

The Foss club blew themselves last night, ably assisted by the Fort Sheridan Military band, which gave the best music ever heard on the North Shore. The Foss banners were on the electric cars between Waukegan and Evanston, the road furnishing a special car to take the land Park so as to give the Parkites a sample of the music. The band returned to Fort Sheridan Park, where between 300 and 400 were waiting to welcome it. The platform was well filled with Waukegan, Wilmette, Highland Park and Highwood representatives. The speakers of the evening were: H. L. Hendee, S. W. Mauck and the Hon. Scott Owen. The town of Deerfield seems to be up and doing for George Edmund Foss. His re-election is the talk of the town.

While it was not a wholly a surprise, Rev. Edwin Seldon's resignation was received with none the less regret at the regular monthly meeting of the Baptist church, Wednesday evening. During his pastorate in Highland Park, Mr. Seldon has won the love, respect and esteem of all his people by his earnestness and zeal, his kind heart and ready sympathy. The Baptist church, under his supervision, has in every way prospered, and he will be missed from the many activities of which he was the leading spirit. Ill health obliges Mr. Seldon to sever his connections and relations, which have always been the most pleasant and cordial, with the church to which he has been most devoted. On the doctor's advice he will leave with his family in the very near future for Colorado, where he will probably remain for a year. Both Rev. and Mrs. Seldon will be missed from the community in which they have made a wide circle of warm friends. We wish them godspeed, a speedy recovery, health in abundance, and hope to see them back in Highland Park sometime again, where they will always find a warm welcome awaiting them.

To Republican Voters, Lake County:
It is my wish that all republicans straight republican ticket—one and one-half votes for E. D. Shurtleff and one and one-half votes for myself on the legislative ticket. Let no friend of mine, for fear of my defeat, plump three votes for me, and thereby assist an independent to one and one half votes that Mr. Shurtleff is entitled to. No independent can be elected in this district, if the republican vote is divided equally between Mr. Shurtleff and myself. I would like to see Lake county cast a solid vote for the straight ticket and if it does, E. D. Shurtleff and myself will be elected. Vote straight.

Very Respectfully,
GEORGE R. LYON.
