A TRUE CHARITY.

Rev. Pfanstiehl's Sabbath school class has all summer been looking out for some practical Christian work for them to do during the coming winter. Last Thursday, at their monthly business and social meeting at the home of Mr. Vail, the committee reported, recommending the opening of a night school and reading room in the West Division street church, a mission of the Presbyterian church, in a densely populated poor district of the city. The school will be open four evenings a week, and a teacher hired, who will instruct in English, arithmetic and book-keeping. The reading room will be open every night in the week, where books, papers and periodicals will be supplied through the efforts of the class, making a bright, warm place for young men to gather during the long winter nights, thus keeping them out of saloons and demoralizing places which abound in that neighborhood. Their homes are so unattractive that as possible. The only real comfortable place is the saloon. The class will endeavor to offset that by keeping open their reading room and making it as attractive as possible.

Last week, Thursday evening, the following officers of the class were elected for the next six months: President, Carleton Vail; vice president, T. Troxell; secretary, John Grant; treasurer, Arthur Purdy. Ushers for the church, beginning November: James Troxell, Arthur Purdy, George Millard.

The coming social event of next week is the reception which will be given next Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 by Mrs. Edward A. Small in honor of her sister, Mrs. William H. Moore, of New York city.

Candidate for Sheriff of Lake County, Illinois

JOHN H. SHEAHEN

John H. Sheahen was born in Highland Park, August 20, 1870, was reared and began his successful business career here, winning the respect and esteem of all by his manly, straight-forward business principles and his honesty and integrity. For over twenty-two years Mr. Sheahen has been actively engaged in the Sheahen Jersey Dairy Company, and of which concern he is now the owner and manager. Mr. Sheahen has been a member of the Highland Park Volunteer Fire Department for six years, and for two years acted as assistant fire marshal. At present he is serving as a constable for Deerfield township. Mr. Sheahen has proven himself faithful to every public trust reposed in him, and it is expected that Lake county citizens will give him a rousing majority next Tuesday.

SHEAHEN'S PLEDGE TO THE VOTERS

Highland Park, Ill., Oct. 23, 1902.

To the Voters of Lake County:
The principal issue in the local campaign in Lake County this year is the gambling issue. The invasion of the district by the gambling fraternity within the past year and the establishment of the so-called Lorillard pool-room at Deerfield has been a matter of great concern to the residents of the community. On the Sheriff of the county must fall the responsibility of eliminating all sorts of vice, and I hereby pledge myself that if elected to the office of Sheriff, I will faithfully enforce the law and proceed at once to close all gambling institutions in the county and prevent the entrance of any person or persons for the purpose of conducting gambling institutions. No poolroom will flourish within this county during my term of office, and gambling of all other character I will faithfully endeavor to suppress.
(Signed) JOHN H. SHEAHEN

Democratic Candidate for Sheriff of Lake County.

Mr. Sheahen's opponent was chief of police of Waukegan several years ago. He is a member of the political machine of which the present sheriff, Griffin, is a member. D. A. Grady, of Waukegan chairman of the democratic county committee, believes the pledge of Candidate Sheahen will insure his election as sheriff. You will make no mistake if you cast your vote for John H. Sheahen.

Rev. and Mrs. Grover, Mr. and Mrs. Grover, and the Misses Grover, who were the guests of Colonel H. P. Davidson and family several days last week, while waiting for their household furniture from the city, went into their new home, Saturday, Mr. Grover, who is in charge of the department of educational publications at Rand, McNally & Co.'s, has taken the Laing house, having decided to make his home in Highland Park.

Society as a whole has been rather at a stand still during the past week as far as concerns entertainments of a local nature. The Coliseum has been the magnet of the week. Among those who enjoyed the delights of Horse Show are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Yoe, who had a box; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith and family, as the guests of Mrs. William H. Moore; Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Childs, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. McMullin and Mr. Page.
