

GLENCOE.

Miss May Murdow entertained at a pretty luncheon on Tuesday.

F. L. Holmes left Tuesday on a two weeks' business trip.

Robert Nutt, of Cliffside, N. Y., is the guest of his brother, Howard Nutt.

Miss Nina Howard left this week for Burlington, Vt., to attend the marriage of a cousin.

Mrs. D. MacArthur entertained at a delightful Kensington tea Wednesday afternoon from 2 until 5.

Mrs. J. Fanning left Monday morning for Detroit, Mich., where she was called by the illness of her sister.

Mrs. M. C. Becker is enjoying a delightful visit from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clark, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. W. L. Fisher, of Lakeside, delightfully entertained a few friends at an informal "at home" Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. K. Peitsch, of the Chicago University, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Paepcke over Sunday.

Thomas Gray, of Chicago, who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is convalescing at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Clyde.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashbel Ligare went to River Forest Friday evening, where they were the guests of Mrs. Edith Ligare over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. George F. Orde were among the number from Glencoe who graced the horse show with their presence.

Mrs. E. D. Brigham returned from New York Wednesday, where she has been visiting her two sons, who are at school at Fishkill-on-the-Hudson. Mr. Brigham is still in the East.

A physical culture class has been organized in Glencoe under the direction of Miss Olive Taylor and will hold its first meeting at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Newhall, Tuesday.

Richard, the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Williams, who has been confined to his home with a severe cold is much better and will soon be able to say that "Richard is himself again."

Mrs. George H. Tuttle, of Toledo, Ohio, is the guest of her sister Mrs. W. H. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson also enjoyed a delightful little visit of a day from her father, Mr. Franklin Hubbard, of Toledo, Ohio, on Sunday.

Mr. Doud, of Winnetka, officiated at the morning, and evening vesper services at the Congregational church Sunday, and Mrs. Tainter, of Chicago, gave an interesting short talk in the morning on the building of homes for home missionaries, and in the evening Mr. Doud, who recently returned from a prolonged trip abroad, spoke on his travels.

The ladies' guild of the Congregational church, of which Mrs. Benjamin Newhall is president, will hold its bazar in the parlors of the church the first week in December. It is the intention of the guild to make this in every way a record bazar. Articles will be sold at moderate cost, thus affording an excellent opportunity to all for the purchasing of their Christmas gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Pound entertained at a stein dinner Saturday evening, which proved an extremely enjoyable affair. Covers were laid for ten, the guests including Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Swain, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Shaw, Miss May Murdow, Mrs. K. Booth and John Fanning. After dinner the party adjourned to the Skokie Country club and enjoyed ping pong and dancing.

The course of Friday evening entertainments given each week at the Glencoe school are constantly growing in popularity. A large audience enjoyed Mr. Frank Woodruff's interesting talk on "Birds" last week. Miss Elizabeth Harrison was scheduled to speak this evening on "Heart vs. Head," but this being Hallowe'en night a little change has been made in the program, so Miss Harrison's talk will be a pleasure deferred and the evening will be given over to Hallowe'en festivities, Mrs. Andrew McLeish having kindly planned a delightful party for the children.

Dr. and Mrs. William E. Vose have returned from their wedding journey and have gone to house-keeping in their new home at Columbia Barracks, near Nashville, Tenn., where Dr. Vose is now stationed.
