

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1902.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 24.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

Local news matter will be found on every page of this week's NEWS-LETTER.

Mrs. A. B. Fitzgerald and daughter, Wilmette, have returned to Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Vetter are rejoicing over a little son born to them, Tuesday, October 29.

Mrs. L. Perry, who has been quite ill, was removed to a hospital in the city, Friday.

Wednesday witnessed the return of A. P. Dunn from a delightful trip of several weeks in Canada.

The Basket club was entertained most royally at the home of Miss Gertrude Chandler last week.

Miss Clotilde Bevilard, accompanied by her brother, was the guest of Miss Allie Streiber, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hintz enjoyed a pleasant visit Sunday from Mr. and Mrs. A. Hintz, of Ravenswood.

Mrs. Edward Moon returned this week from a pleasant visit of four months with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hintz enjoyed a pleasant visit Sunday from Mr. and Mrs. A. Hintz, of Ravenswood.

Mrs. Edward Moon returned this week from a pleasant visit of four months with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hintz enjoyed a pleasant visit Sunday from Mr. and Mrs. A. Hintz, of Ravenswood.

Mrs. Edward Moon returned this week from a pleasant visit of four months with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hintz enjoyed a pleasant visit Sunday from Mr. and Mrs. A. Hintz, of Ravenswood.

Mrs. Edward Moon returned this week from a pleasant visit of four months with relatives in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hintz enjoyed a pleasant visit Sunday from Mr. and Mrs. A. Hintz, of Ravenswood.

We are happy to report that Ben Fessenden is doing well, and Dr. Lynch is confident that it will not be a long nor heavy siege.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Eddy are the guests of Mrs. Samuel Levin. Mrs. Eddy will make Highland Park her home during the winter.

Miss Anna Goldberg, accompanied by her brother, Ben, attended a party given in the city Sunday evening by the West Chicago club.

Interest continues to grow in Mme. Du Mausac's embroidery class which held a very pleasant meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. H. A. Ritter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rudolph enjoyed a pleasant visit of several days this week from their daughter, Mrs. F. Florent, and little grandson, Veran, of Chicago.

Mr. N. Clampitt is gathering his second crop of strawberries in his garden this week. If anyone doubts this he can call at the NEWS-LETTER office where we have a few on exhibition.

The ladies of the W. M. S. of the United Evangelical church held a thank-offering meeting, followed by a pleasant social afternoon, Thursday, at the home of Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg.

Miss Wessling, who has been spending the past year in Patton, Iowa, has returned to Highland Park, where she intends to spend the winter, and is at present the guest of her sister, Mrs. Silas P. Brand.

A prize masquerade ball will be given by Council No. 99, of the North American Union, in Goldberg's opera house, Thanksgiving eve, November 26. The music will be furnished by a Chicago orchestra. Tickets 50 cents a person.

Flannellettes 6 and 9c, Ladies Bazaar

Miss Pillsbury, of Boston, who has been the guest of Mrs. E. J. Nally at Grassmere, has returned to Chicago, where she has decided to open a studio and locate permanently. Miss Pillsbury, who is an exceptionally fine musician, has just returned from Vienna, where she has been studying for the past two years with Leschetizky.

Mrs. E. J. Nally, with her little daughter, Marylee, leaves tomorrow for Lexington, Ky., where they will spend the month of November with relatives. Mr. Nally, who accompanies his family, will not remain south, but expects to rejoin them at Thanksgiving, where a grand family reunion will take place at the home of Mrs. Nally's parents.

Stylish millinery at Ladies Bazaar City Clerk Finney was not a little surprised to learn this week that he was the proud grandfather of a little grandson a week old, his son, Newman Finney, having succeeded in keeping his marriage to Miss Irene McGrath, of Chicago, which took place at the bride's home last December, a profound secret. Mr. and Mrs. Newman Finney and little son will make their home with Mr. and Mrs. John Finney for the present.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Seldon with their little son, Richard, will leave for Colorado, Monday, to be gone indefinitely. The services at the Baptist church next Sabbath morning will be conducted as usual by Rev. Seldon, who will preach on "Glorious in the Cross." It will be his farewell sermon to his devoted congregation, which so sincerely regrets and appreciates what a loss his departure means to the church. However, we shall hope it is but a temporary parting and that we shall sometime see him back in his old pulpit in Highland Park with restored health.

The floral decorations both at Mrs. E. A. Small's and at Mrs. C. C. Yoe's were in charge of Fritz Bahr. So beautiful were the flowers and so artistic the arrangement that it is impossible to refrain from a word of praise.

Mrs. Daniel Cobb, Miss Frances Everett and Miss Adele Everett were among the guests of honor invited to meet Mrs. Robert J. Burdette at the reception given in her honor by the West End club of Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. Finkbeiner were given a delightful surprise party at their home Monday evening by the young people of the K. L. C. of the United Evangelical church. The pastor attended an important business meeting at the church earlier in the evening and when he returned to his home about 9 o'clock was astonished to find himself surrounded by a friendly host of forty invaders who greeted him with "surprise!" A very handsome parlor lamp was presented to Rev. and Mrs. Finkbeiner by the K. L. C. After the games delightful refreshments were served.

The annual meeting of the Highland Park branch of the Needlework Guild was held November 3, at the home of Mrs. Millan. Two hundred and seventy-four new articles of clothing, towels, etc., were contributed and sent to the following charitable institutions: Highland Park Relief and Aid Society; Lake Bluff Orphanage; Allandale Farm, Lake Villa, Ill.; St. Mary's Orphanage, Chicago; Baptist Orphanage, Chicago; Visiting Nurses' Association, Chicago; Home for Crippled Children, Chicago. The following officers were elected: Miss A. LaBar, president; Mrs. P. C. Wolcott, vice president; Mrs. R. P. Davidson, secretary and treasurer.