FRIDAY, NOV. 7, 1902.

The election is over and the results are now definitely known. It was one of the most hotly contested, for an "off year," that has ever been known in the United States. The Illinois legislature is republican, which insures the election of Hopkins to the United States senate to succeed William E. Mason. Congressman George E. Foss was re-elected, but by a reduced majority. The republicans have a majority in both houses of the national legislature, but the democrats made good gains, having increased their number in the lower branch by seventeen.

John H. Sheahan, the democratic candidate for sheriff of Lake county, made a good race, but was unable to overcome the large republican majority. However, he is justly proud of the vote he received.

George A. Mawman, the people's candidate for the legislature from the Eighth district, made a creditable showing, and while he was defeated, the principles for which he contended still stand.

"Uncle Joe" Cannon, of Illinois, will probably be the next speaker of the lower house of congress.

The Lake county republicans were successful in electing their entire ticket.

SCHOOL NOTES.

HIGH SCHOOL.

For the first time in the history of the school the membership now numbers 103.

The football victory at Kenilworth last week afforded the boys and girls a gratifying opportunity to practice their school songs and yells, and which encouraged their own team not a little during the spirited contest.

The high school is rejoicing in the acquisition of two attractive new pictures, one an excellent reproduction of Edwin Abbey's "Sir Gallahad," beautifully framed, and the gift of the graduating class of 1900, and an equally fine copy of Sargent's "Prophets," architecturally framed, which was presented by the class of 1902.

Another feather has been added to the cap of the township high school. The certificate, which has just been received, and which places the students on the fully accredited list of the University of Illinois, at Champaign, speaks volumes for the high standard of scholarship demanded of the high school pupils. The boys in the shop have already proved their appreciation of the honor by making a fine, ebonized oak frame for the certificate.

The heroes of the gridiron scored another triumph, Saturday, by defeating the Glencoe team in a splendid match game, the score being 17 to 0 in favor of the high school second team. The first team is certainly entitled, although it has no intention of so doing, to rest on the laurels won last week, when accompanied by Professor Wilson, Mr. Scrugham and Miss Williams, and over fifty enthusiastic high school boys and girls they went down to Kenilworth and royally vanquished the much boasted Rugby team.

The first high school Hallowe'en party was a decided success, and it is the universal wish that the pleasant precedent be annually repeated, so thoroughly was it enjoyed by all. As good fortune would have it the board of education happened to hold one of their regular business meetings that evening, so the members of the board, the faculty, and the students mingled pleasantly together in the evening's frolic, which began with a phantom party. As Alfred Bergen played the dirge, the students clad in sheets and pillow cases, the ghosts and ghostesses marched around the halls in sepulchral procession to the gymnasium, where they laid aside their ghostly attire and enjoyed an interesting series of weird, creepy tableaux. Red, greenish and blue lights added to the uncanny atmosphere, and witches and broomsticks—by means of invisible wires—flew back and forth across the range of vision. A scene from the "Lay of the Last Minstrel" was admirably given, and the ghost scene from "Hamlet," as given by Clarence Noerenberg and Herbert Inman was beyond criticism, so well were the parts taken. The hit of the evening was made by Ruth Sampson, who so cleverly played the part of "Flying the Witch." After the games and and Hallowe'en tricks, refreshments were served and dancing was enjoyed until 10:30 when at Professor Wilson's suggestion the students dispersed and went home. While Miss Pardee was the promoter and moving spirit of the jolly occasion, its success was due to the hearty co-operation of the teachers and students.

The pastor and people of St. Mary's church, through the columns of the NEWS-LETTER, desire to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to the local merchants who have so generously contributed toward the success of the bazaar with the following donations: Alexander Robertson, one ton of coal; I. Goldberg, one silk umbrella; A. A. Meser, one Japanese teapot; J. A. Blomdahl, one pair of slippers; John Hartrout, pipe and box of tobacco; D. C. Purdy & Sons, jardiniere; Mrs. Bock, box of soap; Miss E. L. Erskine, China sugar bowl and creamer; E. C. Behrens, oysters; J. M. Dilharz, one whip; Harry Mills, ham and pickles; Dale Sweetland, one China clock, one album; James McDonald, $1 worth of coffee; C. A. Kuist, one set Mrs. Potts' sadirons; F. M. Evans, one 2-pound can of Chase & Sanborn's coffee and nap-dozen teaspoons; Larkin & Kline, lady's shoes; Fred W. Schumacher, five pounds Schumacher's chocolate creams; Paul Gieser, boiled ham; William Noerenberg, sugar; H. Denzel, box of cigars.

One of the prettiest, happiest events of the week was the beautiful little birthday party given Wednesday by Dr. Baker, of Ravenswood, in honor of the fourth birthday anniversary of her two little nephews, Lester Baker Green and Frederick Church. There was a separate birthday cake with its four lighted candles, for each child, and everything to make them the happiest little men on the north shore.
