

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M. B. May 1, 1902

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XII.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1902.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 25.

Emil Rudolph and family have returned to Chicago for the winter.

Miss Laura Muhlke is entertaining Miss Alice Smith, of Detroit, Mich.

Massage, Shampooing and Scalp Treatment. Mrs. R. A. Hatton, Glen-coe, Ill.

Mrs. D. P. Sheahen has returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in Oakfield, Wis.

Miss Madden, sister of the late Father Madden, left last week for Philadelphia, Pa.

Rev. Ganske, of Ravenswood, occupied the pulpit at Zion church Sunday evening.

Among the articles contributed to St. Mary's bazaar was a Japanese tea pot, by A. A. Moses.

Mrs. F. C. Noerenberg and Miss Gertrude Brand spent Saturday with relatives in Chicago.

Miss Florence Evans enjoyed a pleasant visit from Miss Bean, of Waukegan, this week.

Miss Margaret Landt, of Auburn Park, spent Monday at Sunny Brae with Mrs. O. L. Olesen.

Quite a large number from Highland Park attended the first of the Apollo concerts, Monday evening.

Mr. J. Mahstedt, of Edgewater, and Mr. N. Schal, of Chicago, visited several days this week with friends at Highland Park.

Miss Grace Fawyer, of Chicago, who has been visiting friends in Highland Park, is at present the guest of Miss Alice Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Loeb and family, D. Loeb, and Miss N. Westerfeld, of Chicago, enjoyed a pleasant visit this week with M. Moses and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. C. Yoe, who left Tuesday for the east, will spend several weeks in New York City, and then go on to Washington, D. C., where they will remain until their return after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Grace Diehl is entertaining a few of her young lady friends at a delightful ping-pong party, given in honor of Mrs. F. P. Boynton.

Rev. and Mrs. Edwin Seldon left the first part of the week for Colorado, where they will probably remain during the coming year.

Rev. and Mrs. Ganske, of Ravenswood, and Rev. and Mrs. Brockman, from Fort Sheridan, were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. Baumann at the parsonage, Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Karl, of Chicago, is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. William Tillman. Mrs. Hollman, of Chicago, was also the guest of Mrs. Tillman this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Snow will close their home on Central avenue next week and go into the city, where they have taken apartments at the Chicago Beach Hotel for the winter.

Mrs. A. E. Dorsey was among the guests at a matinee party given by her sister, Mrs. Ben Livesay, at the Illinois Theatre Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Loesch, of Chicago, are spending the week in Highland Park, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Loesch and Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Sheahen.

A reception will be given in honor of Mrs. Chas. Deere, state regent, of Moline, Ill., by the North Shore Chapter, D. A. R., at Egandale, next Friday afternoon, Nov. 21.

Mrs. A. E. Andrews was hostess at a dinner party given Wednesday evening. The table decorations were in yellow, with yellow chrysanthemums, and exceedingly pretty.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boynton have returned from their wedding journey and will be at home at their residence on Sheridan Road the second and last Wednesdays in December and January.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

Arthur Tillman, who, accompanied by his nephew, Arthur Tillman, left last Thursday week to visit his daughter who is attending school at Jacksonville, Ill., and his uncle, Rev. R. J. Tillman, of Arenzville, Ill., is expected home to-day.

Honors are easy! In a spirited football game played at the Academy campus, Wednesday afternoon, between the second team of the high school and the military academy's second team, the latter were victorious.

Col. and Mrs. H. Humphreys and family have closed their charming home, Shore Acres, and gone into the city, where they have taken a home in Lake View. Mrs. Humphreys and daughter will pass the mid-winter months in Virginia.

One of the features at the reception given by Mrs. Edward A. Small for her sister, Mrs. W. H. Moore, last Wednesday afternoon, was the announcement made by Mrs. Small of the engagement of her niece, Miss Lora Smith, to Kenneth Cowan, of Chicago.

Mrs. Geo. P. Everhart entertained Fraulein Reichen, of Monroe Ave., Hyde Park, at luncheon at Miralago, Tuesday. Fraulein Reinlein is the leader of the German Literary Club, of which Mrs. Chas. Ware is president, and of which Mrs. Everhart is a recent member.

The Presbyterian church is most fortunate in having secured Mr. Price as a permanent organist. Mr. Price, who has recently returned from a pleasure trip to California, gave a very delightful musical program last Sunday. This Sabbath his selections will include: Prelude, Russian National Hymn; Offeratory, "The Evening Star," Wagner; Postlude, arranged from chorus by Dudley Buck.

Mrs. Ida M. Halfell, of Pierceville, Ill., who, with her daughter Faith, is the guest of Mrs. Paul Geiser this week, was given a delightful surprise party Thursday evening, by the members of the United Evangelical church of which her husband, Rev. A. Halfell, was formerly pastor.

A bazaar for the benefit of little destitute crippled children will be held in the parlors of the Auditorium Hotel, Chicago, next Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21 and 22, afternoon and evening. Bozzie, the famous mind-reading dog, will be on exhibition. Tickets for adults, 25 cents; children admitted free.

A program of more than unusual interest was presented by Mr. Arthur Bowers at the last regular meeting of the Woman's Club, on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Bowers was most happy in his subject; "Musical Composers and Their Compositions," and delighted the audience with several charming selections.

A normal class in Bible study was organized by Rev. Sorg at Ebenezer church, last Friday evening, with an enrollment of ten members. The class will meet every Friday evening until further notice is given by the pastor, in the lecture room of the church. A cordial invitation is extended to all the congregation and their friends to attend these Bible study meetings.

At a meeting of the Union Committee of Sabbath-School Workers, which was held at the home of H. S. Vail, Tuesday evening, it was decided to invite the noted Bible lecturer, Rev. Alexander Patterson, of Chicago, to give a course of lectures at Highland Park, beginning Sabbath evening, Nov. 30, and continuing during the week. This is a rare treat in store for our town. The full program will be announced later. The meetings will be held in the Presbyterian church.