GLENCOE.

Miss Olive Swain has returned from Dowagiac, Mich.

Miss Eleanor Huford has almost entirely recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Pappes, of Toronto, Can., is the guest of Miss Mabel Beddoe.

Mrs. Hogan and Misses George and William Baker, of Englewood, spent Sunday at Glencoe.

Swain.

Mrs. Lawrence Howard and baby, of Plainfield, N. J., are the guest of General and Mrs. C. H. Howard and will remain until the holidays.

Miss Mabel Beddoe has returned from Guelph, Ontario, Canada, and will remain at home until after the Christmas holidays when she will leave for Boston, Mass.

The Ladies Guild of St. Paul's Church will hold a Thanksgiving cake and delicacy sale in Dennis' store, opposite the postoffice, Wednesday, November 26. Orders taken for special dishes.

While the youngest child has not as yet been pronounced out of danger we are able to report that all the other members of Mrs. John J. Jost's family are progressing and will recover.

November 21 Dr. Henry Crew, of the Northwestern University, will speak on "Spinning Tops." These entertainments are absolutely free to all and a most cordial invitation to attend is extended to every one.

C. Antocowski who has just returned from a visit to Jerusalem and the Holy Land, has purchased Frank Kron's residence. Mr. and Mrs. Kron have gone to Wisconsin where they will make their permanent home.

A very delightful concert was given at the Glencoe school last Friday evening, and quite as interesting an entertainment is in prospect for tonight, when Superintendent Orville T. Bright will deliver an address on "Booker Washington and the Tuskegee Work."

Wait until December 5th and 6th before purchasing your holiday gifts. The bazaar given by the Ladies Guild of the Congregational church will have a most attractive assortment from which to make your selections, and contrary to all bazaar precedents the moderate prices promise to be a pleasing and appealing feature.

Was Weak in Mathematics.
The Atlanta Constitution the other day received the following letter: "Sur an Frennd—Do the Carnegie Library lend Books techn Mathewmattics to Outside your Citie? I want Onlie Books on Mathewmattics, as I am all right on spellin and am a purty good Grammatician, if I do say it Miself. I kin Spel an Grammarize, but Mathewmattics is one too Much for Me."
