At the meeting of the Ossoli Club, Thursday afternoon, notwithstanding the numerous conflicting engagements, a goodly number listened with pleasure to an interesting paper by Mrs. Frances Everett, on "Some Problems in Modern Pedagogy," and to several delightfully rendered vocal selections by Miss Mabel Beddoe, of Glencoe, a remarkably talented young woman, who possesses a beautiful contralto voice, and who will return to Boston after the holidays to resume her musical studies with Prof. Albert Baker Eddy.

HIGH SCHOOL.

A genuine "old times" farmer's picnic will be enjoyed by the pupils at the township high school, Thanksgiving Eve. Some exceedingly clever posters have been designed for the occasion by Jessie Grant and George Roberts.

At the match game of indoor base ball played at the gymnasium, last Friday, the High School team defeated the Highland Park team 14 to 12. The high school teams are not lacking in triumphant opportunities to practice their new yells.

This week witnessed the return of Eleanor Smoot and Ben Fessenden, both of whom have been absent a number of weeks with typhoid fever, but who are now, we are happy to say, quite themselves again.

On Friday evening, Dec. 12, Rev. A. A. Pfanstiehl will deliver his interesting stereopticon lecture on Paris at the high school. There will be no admission fee, and a most hearty invitation is extended not only to the pupils but to everyone, old and young to attend.

The boys in the shop are very much interested these days in a fine white oak periodical cabinet which they are making for the high school library, which promises to be quite a handsome piece of furniture, and to fill a long felt want.

T. B. Watson has returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Le Feber, in Eaton, Ind., and will leave again this week on a combined business and pleasure trip through Iowa, Minnesota and South Dakota.

Who's News-LETTER are you reading?

FORT SHERIDAN.

The report that was circulated this week in the Chicago papers stating that a young soldier had died at the Post from the effects of having been drugged in a Highwood saloon was wholly unwarranted and without foundation. The young man, in an intoxicated condition and unable to get any more liquor, procured a bottle of bay rum from the barber shop and drank the contents. Previous to that he drank a cup of coal oil. When the cause of his agony and torture was discovered young Humphreys had passed beyond the reach of medical aid.

HIGHLAND PARK CLUB.

The calendar for the Highland Park club continues each week to present attractions more delightful than the last.

The card party last Saturday evening was a charming success. Mrs. Rounsevelle assisted as hostess of the pleasant occasion. Very beautiful prizes were awarded. Miss Boal, of Columbus Barracks, who came as the guest of Mrs. J. F. Leaming, received the lady's prize—a handsome chrysanthemum holder, and George F. Cole carried off the honors of the evening by winning the gentleman's prize. Delicious refreshments were served and a pleasant time enjoyed by all.

Saturday evening, November 22, will be "gentlemen's night." The evening will be devoted to the discussion of plans for the projected bowling alley and other new additions to the club.

A very delightful dancing party will be given at the club Thanksgiving evening, November 27. Mrs. George P. Everhart, Mrs. Henry H. Doty, Mrs. Thomas L. Berry, and Mrs. Frederick P. Luther will act as hostesses and every thing is being done to make the occasion one of the most brilliant in the club's history.

At the informal "family evening," Saturday, November 29, a varied and interesting programme will be presented and will include music, recitations, debates, etc., to be followed by an informal social time.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the O. R. C., of Decatur, Ill., spent Thursday at the Railroad Men's Home. The party consisted of 40 ladies, all of whom greatly enjoyed their visit to the Home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mark, of Port Perry, Can., and their daughter, Mrs. Charles Battenburg, of Ravenswood, were the guests of Mrs. Edward Moon a couple of days last week

HIGHWOOD.

Mrs. Warner, of Waukegan, was a guest at the Hotel Mecham during the past week.

Mrs. Joseph Mecham enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Skidmore, of Fort Sheridan, Wednesday.

The Ladies' Auxiliary spent a pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. McErney, Thursday.

Mrs. F. E. Woodruff and son, of Cleveland, O., were the guests of Mrs. Onsom several days this week.

Miss Halsey T. Gavitt will leave next week to attend a large house party over Thanksgiving, at Columbus, O. Thanksgiving Day is to be the occasion of a grand family reunion, and at the dinner covers will be laid for forty.

Albert Mecham is already receiving a number of orders for Christmas work. He has just finished a handsome box for photographs for a lady in Chicago. His work is far more artistic than that displayed in the department stores, and his prices less than half.

Remember the grand masque ball given by the Sheridan lodge, I. O. O. F. No. 662, comes off tonight at Fort Sheridan Park. There will be fine music, and every arrangement has been made for the pleasure and enjoyment of the guests. If you miss this ball—well, there will not be another for a whole long year!

Under the pleasant and able leadership of Mrs. Kathryn Kelly and Mrs. Alice Matott, 25 friends took possession of the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bell, last Friday evening, and surprised Miss Bertha Bell with a delightful household shower. The gifts numbered over 100, and included some very beautiful pieces of cut glass, china, silver, linen, etc. There was music, singing and games. Refreshments were served, and the evening was enjoyed by all, but by none more than Miss Bell, who was very much touched by this pleasant expression of friendship on the part of so many of her friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. J. S. Reesman, who has been spending the past few weeks with friends in Chicago, has returned, and is a guest of the Ingleside.
