GLENCOE.

Mrs. Josts' family has entirely recovered and the children are all out again.

Mrs. D. G. Case, of Bad Axe, Mich., is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. R. Case.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Paul's church held a Thanksgiving delicacy sale on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ramsay are rejoicing over a little son born Wednesday, November 19.

Miss Gertrude Taylor has returned from Marinette, Wis., where she has been since last June.

Preston Calhoun has returned from Chicago where he had an operation successfully performed on his eye last week.

Miss Agnes Day expects to leave for the south after the Christmas holidays where she will spend the winter in Florida.

Miss Dora Allen, who has been spending the summer and autumn months at the home of Mrs. George Ellis, has returned to Chicago.

The Ladies Guild of the Congregational church will hold their holiday bazaar in the village hall next Friday and Saturday, December 5 and 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Paepeke will close their summer residence and return to their town house at 587 Dearborn avenue after the Thanksgiving holidays.

The next in the series of the Friday night entertainments at the Glencoe school will be a concert given by the members of the African M. E. church on the evening of December 5.

The reception given for Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Branscombe by the members of St. Paul's church at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brigham last Monday evening proved a very happy occasion.

At the meeting of the Ossoli club in Highland Park last week the vocal selections of the program were furnished by Miss Mabel Beddoe and rarely has the club had the pleasure of listening to a more charming singer. Miss Beddoe possesses an attractive stage presence and a most pleasing personality which combined with a beautiful sympathetic voice makes her altogether delightful.

The concert given at the village hall, Tuesday evening for the benefit of St. Paul's church proved an artistic triumph and not only reflected great credit upon the artists but as well on the committee by whom the delightful program was arranged. During the intermission refreshments were served by the ladies, a social feature that was much enjoyed. The program was presented by the following talent: Mrs. Eisen-dratti, of Winnetka; Misses Mabel Beddoe, Olive Taylor, Ethel Hankey, and Messrs. Drummond, H.E. Davis, and Roy F. Yarlott, of Chicago.

A pretty, simple house wedding of the week was the marriage of Miss Winnie Spackman to Thomas R. James, of South Chicago, which took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister in Winnetka. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dickey, of Evanston, in the presence of a few immediate relatives. The bride, who was becomingly attired in a dainty gown of cream brilliantine with trimmings of chiffon and lace, was unattended. The number of pretty and useful gifts received by the bride were pleasant testimony of the many friends she had made during her short sojourn in Glencoe.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

Last Tuesday a man by the name of S. Swartz met instant death by throwing himself in front of the 12:20 p. m. north bound train on the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, the only witnesses being the engineer and fireman. An inquest was held in the freight house by a jury composed of Marshal Rudolph, Officers Laesch and Nelson, Wm. F. Edwards, John Happ and John Sheahan and a verdict of suicide was returned. The remains were placed in charge of Undertaker Prior. The name of the victim was ascertained from a raffle ticket found in one of his pockets.
