

THANKSGIVING.

Thanksgiving day in its annual round
Has found us again as it has often found,
With the blessings of health and incoming friends,
And the beautiful lesson that love never ends.

Then let us be thankful and loving and true,
That the blessings of Heaven may fall
as the dew;
For the hand of the Giver is opened so wide,
To let fall His blessings on every side.

We thank Thee, O Lord, and praise Thee always,
In our rejoicing forget not to pray, That the kindness that gave us the friends and the hour,
Will keep us still loving and still in its power.

These favors we ask for Jesus' sake.

169 Park Ave. —Laura A. Baker.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mrs. J. S. Reesman left today to make a visit of several days with friends in Chicago.

We are sure the surprise party given at the Railroad Men's Home by the young people of Rev. Fink-beiner's church Thanksgiving night proved a mutual pleasure. The inmates greatly enjoyed the pleasant program which was followed by refreshments and the young people who carried so much cheer and happiness, were quite as happy in their enjoyment of the occasion.

Earl C. Purdy expects to leave next week for the winter in Georgia and Florida, as the representative of the American Bicycle Manufacturing Co., of Chicago. Albeit nearly everybody here has a bicycle—he having sold nearly 60 wheels for them in this little city. Hence they want him to go south and spend the winter introducing their wheels.
He will be back in season to sell you a new wheel next spring. Mrs.
Purdy and "Earl jr." will remain here for the winter.

A benefit ball will be given at Goldberg's opera house Wednesday evening, Decembe 10. The proceeds are to be given to Mrs. A. Naethling to assist her in procuring the best medical aid for her 12-year-old son, Lewis, who has become totally blind.
The child returned from the Hahnneman hospital last week and Dr.
Fisher, the oculist in whose care the boy has been placed, has assured the mother that he can and will restore her son's eyesight. Of course this means many trips to the city and large doctor bills and it is to help Mrs. Naethling meet these heavy expenses that the ball will be given.
The following committee is in charge: Officers Laesch and Nelson, Oscar Freberg, Robert Weir, Edward Nelson, and Thos. J. Duffy.
The best of music is to be furnished.
Tickets 50 cents.
