HIGHWOOD.

Miss Mary Hangren is quite sick with the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs were in Chicago Wednesday.

The young people of Highwood are enjoying the skating these fine nights.

Wise people preferred to walk in the road instead of on the side walk Thursday morning.

William Donley left Wednesday for his home in Cleveland, Ohio where he will spend the winter.

Miss Jennie and Selma Hangren were most pleasantly surprised Wednesday night by about twenty-five young folks. A very good time is reported. Refreshments were served at 11:30 and the party broke up about 12:30. Jennie and Selma each received a handsome present.

The informal reception and ball given in honor of Mayor Gibbs, in Fort Sheridan Park, Monday evening, was a grand success beyond the most sanguine expectation. Notwithstanding the severe weather the hall was crowded. Promptly at 9:30 the grand march began, led by Mayor and Mrs. Gibbs, and in which over one hundred couples participated. The dancing continued until 10:30, when Committee Chairman W. H. Detrick mounted the stage and introduced Mr. G. A. Mawman, of Lake Bluff, who addressed the citizens, congratulating them on their prosperity and complimenting the mayor on his successful and honest administration. This seemed to be the sentiment of the assemblage, judging from the way the applause resounded through the hall. The chairman next introduced Mr. S. F. Knox, of Highland Park, who spoke in the most flattering terms of the administration. The mayor was then led upon the stage, where the chairman in an appropriate address presented him, in the name of the citizens of the Village of Fort Sheridan, a handsome solid gold star set with a magnificent diamond. The mayor's reply was drowned by the applause and cheering which continued for some time. Dancing was then resumed and at 12 o'clock a bountiful supper was served, after which the crowd dispersed, all feeling the evening had been most pleasantly spent.
