NO. 4.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand Agent.

Mrs. R. G. Evans has been quite ill for the past week.

Mrs. Charles Ward, of Chicago, was the guest of Mrs. Snyder, Monday.

Dale Sweetland has a great many happy little thoughts for Christmas presents. Call and see them.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Millard are at the Pennoyer Sanitarium, in Kenosha, Wis., for an indefinite stay.

Dale Sweetland's popular chocolate creams are now in stock in much larger quantities than ever before.

The Evanston Index printing plant was badly scorched, Tuesday evening, by a fire which started in the upper floors.

It is reported that the new Gray cottage, on Hazel avenue, has been rented for immediate possession to a gentleman formerly of Philadelphia.

Mrs. George Brand received a letter from her daughter, Miss Lottie, this week. She is delighted with Berlin, and is making rapid progress in her music.

The invitations to the little functions to be given by Mrs. Fred M. Steele during the holidays are recalled, and changed to a dance in the Highland Park Club, January 3.

The children's festival and Sunday school Christmas tree at Trinity church will be held on Christmas Eve (Wednesday) at 7 o'clock. The services on Christmas morning will be at 7:30 and 11 o'clock. At the second service the Christmas music will be rendered by the full choir, and there will be a short sermon by the rector. Bishop McLaren will make his annual visitation of the parish on Sunday, January 18, and will administer the sacrament of confirmation.

If you contemplate buying anything in the jewelry line for Christmas presents, call on S. Levin, the Highland Park jeweler. His goods are guaranteed, and his prices are reasonable.

The dancing school at the club house has met once. The next session will be Monday evening. About fifteen couples are in attendance, and they speak highly of Miss Hinsdale their instructor. She is an Evanston young lady, and has her sister at the piano.

A dancing school will open at Goldberg's opera house, Highland Park, next Tuesday evening, December 30. Lessons will be given every Tuesday and Thursday evening from 8 until 11 o'clock. Public dances every Saturday night. Admission 25 cents; ladies free. Professor Louis H. Albrand, instructor.

Albert Larson read a very interesting letter from the late pastor, Rev. Edwin Seldon, at the Baptist prayer meeting, Wednesday evening. He remained in Kansas until December 9, and then went to Colorado Springs, where he is rapidly improving. He gained in strength and avordupois while in Kansas, but more rapidly in Colorado. He has the best wishes of the people of Highland Park.

Attorney Smoot put an injunction on the Fox Lake railway folks to prevent them from laying their tracks down Washington street in Waukegan, where that city got an injunction and stopped the Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railway from putting down a second track a couple of weeks ago. Now the whole matter is up to the courts for a final decision. It was a sharp move on Mr. Smoot's part, and the Waukegan people will have to get out their best legal talent or get left.

Christmas cards, stationery, toilet sets, brush and comb sets, purses, card cases, silver novelties, gold rings fancy picture frames for small cabinets, etc. at Dale Sweetland's.

The Sabbath school of the Presbyterian church will hold their Christmas exercises next Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. There will be a tree and appropriate exercises by the school. Everybody is invited to be present and enjoy the services.

At the United Evangelical parsonage on Thursday evening Miss Clara Viola Senruff and Laurence F. Sheets, both of Dixon, Ill., were united in marriage by Rev. J. G. Finkbeiner. Mr. and Mrs. Sheets were former parishioners of the officiating clergyman.

We have been informed that the little Scott boy, who has been an almost life-long invalid, died Tuesday. While the child is released from suffering, which none can realize more fully than his parents, still their grief and sense of loss is none the less keen, and they have the tenderest sympathy of all.

A certain ambitious young man and his estimable wife think of "setting up" housekeeping, having rented a fine new cottage in the grove near Wildwood. He seems now to think that a first-class range, which some of his friends once suggested as an appropriate present, or half a dozen tons of small egg coal, would come in handy.

At the Christian Endeavor meeting held at the Ebenezer church last Sunday evening, an instructive paper was read before the young people on the subject of "Our Fellowship." The paper was written by Miss Lottie Brand and sent from Berlin, which made it all the more interesting. It was Miss Brand's evening for leading the meeting had she been present.

SCHOOL NOTES.

HIGH SCHOOL.

The case for magazines and other periodicals is rapidly approaching completion. It gives promise of being a handsome, and well-made piece of furniture, thanks to the careful work of the boys and the skillful supervision of Mr. Scragham.

The basket ball season is at its height. The boys have two enthusiastic teams and so also have the girls. Some really good players are being developed. The iron post which supports the gymnasium ceiling has been padded, a fact that makes basket ball much safer for the players.

Most of the teachers expect to spend the holidays at their homes. Miss Stewart at Northfield, Minn.; Miss Williams near Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. Scragham at Lexington, Ky.; Miss Bliss at Oak Park; Miss Westcott at Chicago; Miss Matheny at Normal, Ill.; Miss Pardee at Milwaukee.

Tonight the teachers and pupils are enjoying a Christmas party. Each one is to come prepared by costume or otherwise to represent some title or character from some well-known book. A committee from the senior and junior classes has prepared a program of games, a Christmas tree is provided, and each boy brings a Christmas present for a girl and each girl brings one for a boy. These are to be distributed by Santa Claus and his twin brother. The girls furnish homemade candy, and those who wish to dance may do so. The party is to be held in the gymnasium, which is decorated with holly and Christmas greens.

Insure your home against bad fire; You can't afford to be outdone; Without a fee, if you desire, I'll name a rate to make you come.
