

FORT SHERIDAN.

Two more deserters were lodged in the guard house the past week.

Our culinary artist is making several trips to Evanston of late.

Pass up the taters, that's all I want, and then I will go to sleep.

Will Campbell, you might as well own up; you know what we mean.

All the teams are very busy now-a-days practicing for the field day.

Acting Steward Barnes accompanied the 9th Battery on its trip to San Francisco.

Anderson celebrated again by going away for 48 hours, and he says he had a glorious time.

Groom, groom and change horses is all the cry now since the 9th Battery left; lots of fun.

Our friend Hamilton is now going around as if he was walking on air; why, we don't know.

We would not show our letters; it is very poor policy, as in a great many cases it breaks friendship.

A ping-pong club has been organized in D compay and they have several expert players—49 Love.

What is the matter, Donaldson? You look so blue. Cheer up, old man, you only have ten months more.

Will Jacks, we did not think that of you, but your performance of Tuesday night changed our opinion.

Any items which will interest the readers of this paper will be gladly received by Corporal Frederick of Troop L.

Evanston has a large amount of attraction for a couple of men in M troop, and it is not masquerade balls or north gates either.

Our friend Dolly in Troop M, went down to Evanston with a dress suit case last Wednesday night. It looks suspicious.

Hoback, Ashton and Furnis were on a celebration last week with dire results. Cheer up, men, you will soon leave the Post again.

Our old friends, Milan and Hopkins, visited the Post last Sunday to see their old friends and to say good bye to the men of the 9th Battery.

There is a girl in this world for us all, but more than two doors apart.

Sergeant Thompson will once more resume his duties as prison sergeant.

What is going to happen? The west ward was empty—not a person in it.

Is it so hard to be beat out that a certain man in the 20th Infantry has got to go on sick report at 9:45 a. m.

Brother Smith, of L Co. must have had an elegant time when he visited Highwood, as he was laid up for repairs for a week.

Our comedians, Gaston and Pie, are busily engaged in rehearsing a new act, entitled Hoboken's Mayor and the Messenger Boy."

Of course I only loaned the cape. I can get it back when I want it; that's why I don't go after it. And green becomes the complexion.

We will be glad to hear from any one who is thinking of starting a library or reading room; as we can make rates for any publication, no matter where published.

Our friend who used to pull the bell rope in Philadelphia is still masticating the fabric in L Troop. If he don't stop pretty soon he will die of lint on the lungs.

We felt gratified at seeing the smiling face of Acting Hospital Steward Nicodemus at Hogan's hall the other evening, as we thought his arduous duties were keeping him from attending our social functions.

Corporal Fisher and Company Clerk Fallis visited Highwood the other evening in search of a game of whist, in which case they were successful, but to their own sorrow, as they received two slams and a great big O—and they claim to be short suit players.

There is strong talk in the Hospital corps of entering Private Schmidt in the next walking match, as the men think his powers of endurance are great. While training he often does not arrive home until 3 o'clock in the morning, and still he says walking is good.

change of stations. Acting Hospital Steward Paetz went to Columbus instead of Waukegan. What the attraction was we do not know, but have our misgivings; but we hope he will not be lonesome, as the old song goes.

A certain man in the Post who is well known to the men of the Post who were interested in football while as a private and suffering from an enlarged optic which he claimed he received while playing foot-ball, gave the following excuse to stay in the hospital a little longer: "Doctor, every time I blow my nose my eye swells up." But now that he is a corporal we do not think he will again go on the sick report unless it is for cross eyes caused by looking at the stripes. Water. Bring the water.

The following is the order of exercises for field day which will be held in the drill hall on Friday, January 30th, commencing at 9:30 a. m. and continue until finished: 1 hour's intermission between 12 and 1 o'clock. Standing high jump. Standing broad jump. Putting shot. Climbing rope. Climbing pole. Pole vault. Cart-ridge race. Tug of War between teams from 1st and 3rd Batteries, 20th Infantry. Tug of War between teams from troops L and M, 2d Cavalry, and 21st Battery. Rescue race. Rough riding by couples.
