

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIII.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1903.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 10.

Mrs. J. S. Reesman is on the sick list.

Mrs. Mc Nichols is on the sick list this week.

E. H. Vivian is entertaining his brother, from Calumet.

Mrs. John Snyder spent Friday in Chicago visiting Mrs. C. Ward.

Mrs. Vivian and daughter, June, have returned from Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Yoe will leave for California the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan P. Sheahan have returned from Oshkosh, Wis.

Mrs. E. B. Korn left for Sterling, Ill., Wednesday, to visit with relatives.

Misses Florence and Alice Evans are both housed up with severe colds.

P. B. Warren and E. Waite, of Whiting, Ind., spent last Sunday with friends here.

Alderman J. B. Woodruff has sold his beautiful residence on Prospect and Road avenue.

Miss Hattie Noerenberg has again started to take up music at the Chicago Musical College.

Mrs. McNichols, who has been laid up with the grip for the past week, is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Rhinehart are happily rejoicing over the arrival of a son at their house, on Tuesday morning.

The many friends of Judge Hibbard are pleased to see his smiling face on our streets again; his arm is improving.

Mrs. Baumann, wife of Rev. Baumann, has been very ill for several days, but is reported much better this morning.

Mrs. C. W. Aldridge entertained several ladies at an "afternoon coffee" Wednesday. Covers were laid for ten.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

Mr. J. Vetter, who has been confined to his bed for the past ten days with neuralgia of the limbs, is on the way to recovery.

The young people of the Park surprised Miss Alice Evans on Friday evening. A general good time was indulged in.

Mrs. John Snyder entertained Mrs. Carr and daughter, of Waukegan, Tuesday, followed by a card party in the evening.

Dr. Pomeroy, who has been confined to his room for a few days with la grippe, expects to resume his usual duties Monday.

Mr. J. W. Wakem, of 38 Astor St., Chicago, is erecting a beautiful five thousand dollar cottage on his lots on Lake street.

The many friends of Prof. Wilson will be pleased to learn he is convalescent, and hopes to be able to enter school the first of next week.

James McDonald has decided to retire from the grocery business, and has sold his stock of groceries to Losenow & Gipp, of Evanston.

An informal luncheon was given Wednesday by Mrs. Frank Smith in honor of Mrs. H. Mills, Mrs. William Dooley and Mrs. D. P. Sheahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hale, of Chicago, were the guests of their niece, Mrs. F. R. McMullin, at her beautiful home "Coedmore" the past week.

Mrs. L. Bender and daughter, Blanche, have moved into the city, where Miss Blanche has accepted a position in Marshall Field's store as fitter.

Grace Cottage on Linden Ave. is going through a thorough renovation and will be for rent March 1st. Inquire for particulars at Ladies' Bazaar.

Mr. J. W. McKinney spent Sunday with Mrs. McKinney at Lafayette Ind. Mrs. McKinney has been visiting relatives in Indiana for several weeks.

Mrs. Frances Haines Matteson will lead the study class of the H. P. W. C., Tuesday afternoon, February 3d. The subject for study is "Evolution of the Newspaper."

The Altar and Rosary society will receive communion in a body at the 8:30 o'clock mass on Sunday morning, Feb. 1st. All members are kindly requested to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. DeQua and son, and Mr. Deffendorfer, of Ravenswood, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Sweetland. Mr. Deffendorfer is an enthusiastic worker in the Epworth League.

The Highland Park Euchre club has reorganized, with Mr. S. Levis as president, Mr. John Duffy, secretary. They meet at different member's homes each week. The first meeting will be held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albright.

Mr. Earnest Seidel, of Marengo, Iowa, was the guest of Mr. Levin this week. Mr. Seidel learned the jewelry business with Mr. Levin, and is now located at Marengo, where he is meeting with great success.

Miss Gertrude Creedon, pupil of Rafael Joseffy, National Conservatory, New York, solicits your attention to the class for piano instruction being formed in Highland Park. Address 2410 Harrison street, Evanston.

Messrs. Malmstedt, Schal and Horsch, prominent business men of Chicago, spent a day in town last week. They have become quite enthusiastic over the beauties of Highland Park. Mr. Schal is looking for a suitable site to build his future home.

The oldest man in the world today is Senor Manuel del Valle, of Menlo Park, a suburb of San Francisco, California. Senor del Valle is 157 years old. Born in Zacatecas, Old Mexico, Nov. 24, 1745, as a certificate of his birth, signed at the time by the jefe politico, as chief magistrate, of Zacatecas attests. He now lives with his great-grand nephew, Jose del Valle.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howe gave a parting reception last Sunday in honor of their son, William, who will return to England, sailing on the White Star liner, Teutonic, on February 2. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Burgess and Mr. and Mrs. Sumner, of Evanston, and Mr. and Mrs. Bysong, of Highland Park, and Mrs. C. Wetson, of Pennoyer Sanitarium, of Kenosha.

Mr. Jim Larkin, of the firm of Larkin & Kline, has sold his interest in the shoe business to Mr. Kline, who will continue the business at the old stand, 259 Central avenue. Mr. Kline is well known to the people of Highland Park, as a straightforward, honest, energetic man, and to show the appreciation of this fact, do not pass him by when looking for anything in his line. His many friends wish him success.

The Ladies' Missionary Union of the Presbyterian church held a very interesting and helpful meeting last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Carleton Moseley. Mrs. Everett read the paper of the afternoon in her usual instructive and interesting manner. After the program refreshments were served. Mrs. Patton poured. The beautiful new home of Mrs. Moseley gave a fine place for the ladies to meet, and all had a delightful social time. The meeting next week will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Clow.

Who's NEWS-LETTER are you reading?