WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE BILL.

February 4, 1903, will be a redletter day for the women's organizations of Illinois, for on that day, at 2:30 p m, the senate and house election committees will hold a joint session to listen to arguments in favor of the tax paying woman suffrage bill, introduced in the house January 22, by Representative Owen. Five minute speeches from fifteen different women whose organizations are interested in the bill, will make a brilliant and varied program.

Among those who have already signified their intention to be present are almost all of the women who are more often with such hospitable en- Highland Park. serving on the joint legislative committee, Mrs. Eugenie M. ## AN APPEAL TO THE PUBLIC.

Inasmuch as Louis Noethling, the 12-year-old son of Mrs. A. Noethling, has been stricken with blindness, this appeal is made to the charitably disposed and kindhearted people of Highland Park to assist the poor, afflicted boy to regain, if possible, his eyesight, which can only be done through the kindness of the public in contributing toward the expense necessary for treatment by a
