

M. R. Hammond

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIII.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1903.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 13.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

James McDonald is ill with the la grippe.

Mrs. T. B. Watson has been ill for the past three days.

Miss Florence Evans has recovered from her severe cold.

Miss Mabel Cole is confined to her home with a severe cold.

Mrs. R. Shorver from Milwaukee is the guest of Mrs. C. J. Streiber.

The little daughter of E. A. Small who has typhoid fever is getting along nicely.

The dance given by the Osoili club last Saturday evening was a very enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards entertained a small party at an informal luncheon Tuesday evening.

Mr. C. Greuel, who has been battling with the grip for a few days past is able to be out again.

S. C. Purdy was called to South Bend, Ind., the fore part of the week on account of the death of his sister.

Mrs. Edward Ingalls, who has been confined to her home with a severe attack of la grippe, is convalescent.

Mr. Grover Cox, who has been ill with appendicitis the last two weeks, was taken to Chicago to undergo an operation last Wednesday.

Two fine boys arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rouse this week, where they were gladly received. The little fellows are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Kipwell and Miss Percilla Carver leave Saturday for Florida. They will stop in Washington city for a short visit on their way.

Great bargains in Ladies' and Children's Underwear and Hosiery at Miss E. L. Erskine's.

Mrs. Rudolph Shorver, of Milwaukee, is visiting Miss Allie Streiber.

Several articles of household furniture for sale. Inquire at Ladies' Bazar.

Mrs. A. B. Fitzgerald and daughter of Evanston, spent a few days with parents this week.

Mr. Kows, civil engineer of the Northwestern railroad, is here for a few days surveying the new road from Mayfair to Lake Bluff, one mile west of here.

Mrs. J. N. Crouse, president of the Kindergarten College in Chicago, will give a lecture on Kindergarten at the Highland Park club on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 26, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Osoili club.

Our postmaster, W. A. Fletcher and wife, have returned from a delightful visit of three weeks' duration with their brother, Alex, at the "Soo" and with other relatives and friends in Canada. Mr. Fletcher gained seven pounds while away.

Mrs. Charles J. Streiber gave a little dinner party for Mrs. R. Schorver. Among the guests were Rev. and Mrs. Funkbeiner, Mrs. Esther Ingalls, E. M. Masterson, of Lake Forest, Miss Florence Knapp and Miss Fitzgerald.

The Highland Park Euchre club met with Mr. and Mrs. John Duffy Wednesday evening. Refreshments were served and a delightful time was spent. Mrs. Lavin and Mr. Maerklin won first prizes, and Mrs. Maerklin and Mr. Albright captured the consolation prizes.

I wish to sell my entire stock of Millinery, Dry Goods, Notions, store fixtures, shelving, cases, etc., within the next thirty days.

Miss E. L. Erskine.

Miss Carrie Kuist has been quite sick.

Miss Clara Greul has been confined to her home with the grip.

Mrs. J. E. Reesman is visiting her parents in Chicago this week.

Mr. Everett and Mr. Phanstiehl faced the cold weather to Antioch last Sunday morning to attend the Sunday school convention.

Miss Smith, of Waukegan, a county worker in the Christian Endeavor society, addressed the V. L. C. E. Sunday evening last.

Dr. Phanstiehl occupied the pulpit of the first United Evangelical church for two Sunday evenings, the pastor of the church being engaged in special services at Deerfield.

The ladies of Highwood will give an old-time Martha Washington party at the City Hall in Highwood Monday, Feb. 23, 1903, for the benefit of the M. E. Church. Dinner will be served from five until eight o'clock. An excellent program has been arranged for the occasion, beside everything good to tempt one's appetite. Everyone who can should attend and help this good cause along.

The Citizen's Association resolutions, in praise of the work of the present city administration, were published in full in the NEWS-LETTER of the issue of January 16th, on the last page. They have since been engrossed on vellum, handsomely framed and hung in the city building. Mayor Evans response has been pronounced by those who heard it as "perfect," as fine as anything they ever heard on a similar occasion.

Mrs. G. Bohl has been very ill at her home the past two weeks with the la-grippe, she is recovering slowly.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered to Mr. Fred Moon last Thursday evening by a number of friends and an enjoyable time was spent by all. Games, musical selections, refreshments etc. were indulged in, and at a reasonable hour the guests departed with many returns and best wishes to their host.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Snow, of Chicago, and Miss May L. Richards, of Riverside, Ill., are guests at the Raymond Hotel at Pasadena, Cal., known to the tourists and travelers of two continents as the typically exclusive and fashionable southern California stopping place. Its location is certainly without a peer on this continent and for picturesque beauty and magnificence, possibly cannot be equalled by any hotel site in the world. This is the second season for Mr. and Mrs. Snow at the Raymond.

Improved Health for the Reader.

No medicine, no surgery. Enclose 2-cent stamp for reply or call at office in Hotel Meecham, east of Highwood depot from 2 to 4 p. m., week days. None refused instruction, rich or poor. Consultation and one lesson free at office.

Prof. H. S. GAIL,
Box 61, Highwood, Lake Co., Ills.

WANTED—A position as general man at private family. All kinds of hores house cleaning, etc. Add. C. 4.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.