

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIII.

FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1903.

EIGHT PAGES

NO. 16.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Mrs. Prindville left on the 6th for the south.

Mrs. Witten is out again after a short illness.

Miss Jennie Grant has returned from New York.

Mrs. L. S. Bender is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lavin.

C. F. Macchtle spent Sunday with his family at Milwaukee.

Mr. E. Nelson is spending the week at Grass Lake duck hunting.

Mrs. Fred Durst, of Waukegan, visited with friends at the Park Monday.

Mrs. A. B. Fitzgerald and daughter Willette returned to their home at Main street Monday.

A little son came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anson Morgan on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Gibson, of Ridgeville, Ill., were the guests of Mr. G. B. Kline over Sunday.

Mrs. A. G. McPherson expects shortly to go to New York to attend the wedding of his sister, Miss Walker.

Mrs. R. Schorer, who spent several weeks with Miss Allie Streiber, returned to her home at Milwaukee, Sunday.

Our proficient health official, Geo. Elvey, is confined to his room with the usual complications attributed to the winter months.

Mr. George Rudolph and Miss Fanny Weaver, of Waukegan, were married Tuesday evening at the latter's home at Waukegan.

The report comes from Lake Forest and is authenticated by a prominent physician in our midst that policemen carry shot guns while enforcing the quarantine laws brought about by the typhoid fever epidemic at that place.

We were sorry to learn of Rev. Finkbeiner's illness.

Mrs. Lasher entertained the luncheon club on Thursday.

Archer B. Fitzgerald, of Evanston, was in the Park Sunday.

Mr. Sartl is going to occupy the Stockton house after April 1st.

There will be Vesper service every Sunday at St. Mary's Church during Lent.

Miss Ella Collins, of Chicago, is visiting Miss Julia McCaffrey over Sunday.

Miss Verna Roemle, of Evanston, was the guest of Miss Lillian Freberg over Sunday.

St. Mary's choir is rehearsing Wel's Mass with a orchestral accompaniment for Easter.

Miss Laura Muhlke, of Second street, entertained a number of ladies at her home on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Williams have returned from their eastern trip and are at their home on Central avenue.

The famous "cow case" in Judge Hibbard's court Thursday was nonsuited. That is after the cow was milked and the pail was full "old brindle" up and kicked it all over.

Neighbor White will have to put up a sign on his new Central avenue property thus: "This is the old Dr. Baker estate;" it is being so improved that people won't know it. No wonder he has had several applications for it recently at a big rental.

The total tax for this township of Deerfield is $70,309.01. We hope "Jimmie" won't loose that "one" cent. Of this sum the City of Highland Park will get $17,968.32; the public schools, $19,056.53; the high school will have $12,540.61. The dog tax is $262.

Mr. Wunholtz, of Dundee, Elgin, was a guest of the Misses Gruels.

Two bedroom sets for sale. Inquire of Mrs. Bohl. b-1t

Mrs. Ella Ingalls was taken to the Kedzie Hospital at Chicago, Wednesday, to undergo an operation.

Mrs. Prof. Fred. W. Blanchard, of the University of Chicago, was the guest of Mrs. Judge Hibbard this week.

Mrs. A. G. McPherson gave a house picnic for Mrs. A. B. Fitzgerald, of Main street. The game of "fudge" was indulged in until the "wee sma' " hours. A most delightful lunch was served at midnight, after which fun, fast and furious, was continued.

Miss Allie Streiber, who accidentally got a hairpin up her nose, was taken to the Augustana Hospital, Sunday, where it was successfully removed. The offensive little hairpin had reached the back of her head, when intercepted and marched out through her throat by Dr. Percy.

There is a new cashier at Evans' grocery, Miss Maggie Mooney, and she is doing well. A "little birdie" has whispered in our ear that "Nellie" has retired for a rest before taking a long voyage upon the sea of —. We did not understand what sea it was—Mediterranean—matrimonial—or something like that.

The ladies' sewing circle of the Highwood Lutheran Church met at the home of Mrs. John Feberg on last Friday afternoon. It was decided to hold an auction sale in the church on Wednesday, March 25, commencing at 8 o'clock. The ladies of this church have been working hard to make this a grand success. There will be a large display of fancy work and many other useful things. Coffee and cakes will be served after the close of the sale. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Mr. Charles Russon, of South Dakota, is visiting Mr. Gruel and family.

Ed Masterson and Harry James, of Lake Forest, were in the Park Sunday.

Mr. James McDonald asks you to get his terms before storing your furniture. See if you can find his ad.

Mary's winning ways caused the lamb to love her and the famous poem to be written. Be winsome and you may become immortal.

A Highwood girl talks so fast and so much that a young man called upon her seven times recently for the purpose of proposing to her and didn't get a chance to say a word.

Dr. Taylor and wife and Mr. Montgomery and wife, all of Chicago, who have been spending several weeks in Corpus Christi, expect to leave here next Monday for the north via San Antonio. Mr. Montgomery, we are pleased to learn, expects to return here soon.—Corpus Christi (Texas) Caller.

George F. Rudolph, oldest son of our City Marshal, was married Tuesday evening to Miss Fannie B. Weaver, of Waukegan. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. W. McKay, pastor of the M. E. Church in that city. This is the second case, of recent date, of one of our young men going to Waukegan for a bride. Now Highland Park girls, this will never do; you must corral our bright boys and keep them at home. The best wishes of the NEWS-LETTER to Mr. and Mrs. George Rudolph.

J. Genest desires to announce that he has a baggage and express wagon at the service of the public. All kinds of hauling at reasonable prices. Tel. 722.