 People were shocked and grieved when it was announced Sunday that the Rev.  Mrs. Woodward, of Evanston, gave a very graphic and vivid description of her experiences during the boxers' siege in Pekin, China, at the Ladies' Reading Club, which was held at the home of Mrs. H. The ladies brought Chinese curios, and Mrs. Woodward exhibited some beautifully embroidered Chinese costumes, which were worn by the young ladies serving tea, who were: Miss Mildred Winslow, Miss Laura Williams and Miss Emma Wilmarth. The musical part of the program was furnished by Miss Katheryn Thompson, who sang an oriental song with her usual eclat. The ladies all rated it as the banner day of the club.

 Mr. John Mitz, the teamster, who has lived for a year or more in the Knox building on Park avenue, died the evening of the 6th of pneumonia, after a brief illness. Mr. Mitz leaves a widow and two young children, who will for a time need the kindly assistance of the community.
