A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIII.

FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1903.

8 PAGES

NO. 20.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

T. H. Spencer has returned to Highland Park from Port Orange, Florida.

Holy Week services at St. Mary's church were attended by throngs of worshippers.

Thos. Howe has rented his brick house which is situated near the brick yards, to a Chicago party.

On Tuesday afternoon, April 14th, Mrs. A. M. Titus will address the H. P. W. C. upon the "Evolution of the Flag."

Thos. Howe, who has been confined to his home for several weeks with a broken leg, is doing nicely and will be able to get around soon.

Prof. Miller, formerly with the Theodore Thomas Orchestra, will render a violin offeratory selection at St. Mary's church, ten o'clock mass, Easter Sunday.

The Waukgan Sun is getting quite cosmopolitan since its new regime; they have cut off such little exchanges as the News-Letter. Perhaps they think, like the bean-ideal "editor" just north, that the paper is liable to collapse and give them a clear field.

Mr. P. A. Montgomery and family have returned from their winter trip in the southern states. Mr. Montgomery has purchased a large tract of land near Lerado, Texas, and a stock company will irrigate and farm it, two crops of corn in one season being possible in that climate.

A. W. Waldo is especially grateful to his friends for their loyal support in the recent campaign, especially as he has had his personal attention absorbed by the sickness and death of his father in Libertyville. He has not been unmindful of them or their noble work in his behalf.

Postmaster Fletcher presented the newly organized Team Drivers' Union, No. 603, with a beautiful American flag with their name and motto embossed on it. At their last meeting Mr. Fletcher was given a vote of thanks and every one present declared him the laborer's best friend in Highland Park.

Alderman Everett is the only candidate in the Second ward for alderman. Of course his re-election is assured and the citizens are to be congratulated on having his excellent services for another two years. Not only in Ward Two, but in every part of the city Mr. Everett has taken a special interest in public improvements.

Alderman George Brand of the Fourth ward is a candidate for re-election on the full ticket. His record in the council for the past two years is a credit to the ward. He has made many friends by his obliging and personal attention to any constituent who asked his aid in public matters, and while he is not a forceful speaker in the council chamber, he can not be influenced to enter any "deals" for private gain. You should not allow parties who are only running "to get even" to defeat a tried and honest man who has served you faithfully during his brief term of office. That would not be the way to reward upright public officers.

HIGH SCHOOL ELECTION, SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 3 TO 7 P. M.

All the ladies should vote at the High School election, Saturday, April 11, from 3 to 7 p. m. It is for your children's sake that you should attend to this duty and elect officials who have the interests of the children of Highland Park at heart.

EASTER SERVICES AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH.

The festival of Easter will be celebrated in a befitting manner by the pastor and people of St. Mary's parish.

The following is the order of exercises:

First Mass at 8:30 a. m. Music by children's choir under the direction of Miss Stella Finney.

High Mass at 10 o'clock, at which the following program of music under the direction of Charles M. Schneider, will be rendered:

Kyrie—Emerson.
Gloria—Wells.
Credo—Emerson.
Offertory—Violin Solo—Prof. Miller.

Sanctus—Emerson.
Agnus Dei—Solo by Miss Sarah McCaffrey, assisted by choir.

The choir will be supplemented by an orchestra of five pieces, under direction of Prof. Miller.

Sermon on "The Resurrection" will be preached by the pastor, Rev. J. J. Morrissey.

The following are the members of St. Mary's choir:

Sopranos—Misses Lulu Finney, Lizzie Morrissey and Stella Finney.
Alto—Sarah McCaffrey.
Tenor—C. M. Schneider.
Bass—R. O'Brien and J. Berube.

A COMMENDABLE CLUB.

This is a day of many clubs. There are clubs and clubs. A number of boys sometime ago felt the necessity of being of mutual helpfulness to one another in the way of many sports, as well as in the development of worthy traits of character. So they met at the Presbyterian Manse a few weeks ago and asked Mr. Pfanstiehl to draft a constitution and by-laws for them, and to help them organize. The name chosen by the boys for their society is "The Y. Y. Club." Carl Pfanstiehl was elected president; Willie Eckhart vice president; Herbert Moon secretary, and Lyman Prior treasurer.

Committee on athletics and membership and entertainments were appointed. The idea of the boys is mainly to help one another in the development of worthy manhood.

The first public entertainment the club is to give will be on Saturday, April 18th, at the Public Library building, when Mr. Warren, the magician, assisted by Mr. Cortis, of Chicago, an impersonator; Miss Wykoff, who will sing, and Mrs. Nettie Jones who will be at the piano, will appear in one of his unique performances.

The boys want to get some funds in their treasury by which they can the better carry out their laudable purposes. They are whispering among themselves that perhaps the club might later develop into a Y. M. C. A. for Highland Park, a most desirable object.

Hypothetical Case.

Johnny—"Sposin' I should accidentally tip over a jar of preserves, would it be wrong if I ate 'em?"

Mother—Johnny, bring me my slipper.—Chicago American.

Seasoning.

"Does your cook season things highly?"

"I should say so. Even her conversation is peppery."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

And the Girl Turns the Crank.
Softly—Love makes the world go round!

Snortly—Yes, there's no crank equal to a lover.—Harvard Lampoon.

No Chance to Talk.

Mrs. Gumms—Does your husband ever talk of his mother's cooking?

Mrs. Gobang—Not a word. His father died of dyspepsia.—Brooklyn Life.

Reliable Advice.

"Do you know what I can take for indigestion after dinner, doctor?"

"Yes; pie."—Yonkers Statesman.
