LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

Mrs. Wm. E. Brand, who has been suffering with bronchitis, is improving rapidly.

Dan P. Sheahan has been on the sick list this week but is now convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Yoe are expected back Saturday for the summer at "Yoelands."

Mrs. Dr. Fisher returned to her home in the city after spending a couple of weeks at the Log Cabin.

The Highland Park hotel has a new cement sidewalk in front. The rush of business wore the old plank one all out.

J. W. Newton, late of the Electric Light Co., has purchased and is in possession of the Behrens meat market on Central avenue.

When last heard from Everett Millard was in Rome having a royal good time. He has been away now nearly two months.

The News-Letter received this week the finest line of samples of commencement programs ever sent out by the manufacturer.

Miss Bertha Bottum, formerly a teacher in our public school, is spending Sunday here with her niece, Miss Mollie Bottum.

If you can't attend the Y. Y. Club entertainment at the Library building Saturday evening, you can buy a ticket and so help the boys along.

Mr. James Melliush, of Bloomington, with his fiancee spent a few days the first of the week with the family of Mr. Fred P. Luther on Hazel avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. T. Nolan, of Green Bay, Wis., have returned home after spending a few weeks with relatives and friends in the Park.

Mrs. Martha J. Wilson, of Minneapolis, spent Thursday and Friday with friends in town on her way to visit friends in Ohio and West Virginia.

S. M. Millard is getting out after his severe and long pull with the grippe and rheumatism. Mrs. Millard is home from her trip south. She was quite ill while in that sunny clime.

Olemt Smoot is home this week from Ann Arbor, Mich. He don't complain of his college "mess" but he does like to get into his mother's pantry and help himself to the supplies he finds there.

Many people pronounced last Sunday evening's vesper service, at the Baptist church, conducted by Mrs. Jones, the best one of the series so far, though the pouring rain diminished the audience a little.

Our heartfelt sympathies go out to the ladies who had their Easter bonnets, dresses, etc., all laid out, ready to put on as they watched the clouds fill the last minute and then donned their winter garments and went to church.

Our brief editorial last week on the citizens ticket was written to the effect that it was a clean ticket and all were elected save the assessor. But it did not read just that way. We wish to emphasize our high opinion of Mr. Holmes for assessor and our regret at his defeat.

Don't fail to vote for Mr. Moses for alderman in the first ward. He is the watch-dog of the treasury; owns lots of property, favors improvements but wants the people's money used wisely, economically and for the people's best good. Vote for him, the people all over town want him re-elected.

Don't fail to attend the Rummage Sale of the Woman's Club next week Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in the Bays block on Central Avenue. Remember this club got the $10,000 library building of Mr. Carnegie and now they want a slice of your money; let them have it and a big one, they are entitled to it.

A valued correspondent informs us that the idea of the Carnegie Library building originated with Mrs. George B. Cummings, a fact which we mention with pleasure. Apropos of our suggestion that the Ossoli Club raise another ten or fifteen thousand, our correspondent says the Women's Club did not raise the money among themselves. True, they are not millionaires, but they secured the money. We don't care where the Ossoli gets the money if they will only get it. What we want is more money for the building.
