NO. 23.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

The schools will begin again Monday after a week's recess.

N. O. Hipwell and family are to be home from Florida this week.

Remember the date, May 7th. Grand stereopticon lecture at Goldberg's opera house.

Miss Tessie Lamb, of Oshkosh, Wis., is spending a week with her aunt Mrs. D. P. Sheaben.

Thursday Miss Alice Davidson returned from Florida, where she has been spending the winter.

Rev. J. G. Finkbeiner will speak on 'The Model Young Man' next Sunday evening at the United Evangelical church.

Frank B. Green's annex is nearly ready for business. About a week more and you can get pies, nut-cakes, etc. on the ground floor.

The Baptists had a church meeting last Wednesday night and are to have another next Wednesday to decide upon Mr. Anderson as pastor of the church.

The Collins family who occupied the Raymond house just across the street from the Ford Hall place, has moved into the Cheney house on Prospect street.

No more bicycle riding on the sidewalks till next November. The police have their keen eyes out for C. W. Kirk, Judge Hibbard and some other offenders.

Mr. Charles Everett and family have moved into Madame Gray's home on Hazel Avenue, having rented their fine home near the club house for the season.

Mr. Martin has taken possession of the John Freberg livery stand for the season. Mr. Martin runs the Moraine livery and it will be known as the Moraine stables.

H. H. Chandler, publisher of the Farmer's Review, has moved with his family into their beautiful summer home "Chanwood" on the Sheridan Road south.

There seems to be a general fear on the part of parents in Lake Forest to send their children to school on account of the recent scarlet fever scare there.

All this week Mayor Evans has had men at work beautifying his hotel and Central avenue property by laying cement sidewalks and sodding the parkways and yard.

The stereopticon lecture, "My Wanderings in Bible Lands," to be given at Goldberg's opera house, Thursday evening, May 7th, will be interesting and instructive to all.

Peter Gerbolet, son of Mrs. Christina Gerbolet, a graduate of the business college at Evanston, has accepted a position as stenographer with the electric railroad company.

Quite a number of Chicago people spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Vetter. The number included Mrs. Staplefeldt and Miss Schal, Messrs. Smith, Malmstedt, Gregg, Schal, Horsch and O'Brien.

The reconstructed and renovated Goldberg stores opened for business yesterday. Phillip and Ben run the west one as a meat market and grocery store while the east one will be dry goods and clothing.

Miss E. L. Erskine and Stephen Yates were married, we are credibly informed, the 29th at Waukegan at the home of the bride. The NEWS LETTER extends its congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Yates.

John Freberg sold his livery equipment Tuesday at auction. Warren Wilmot, a resident of Deerfield, was auctioneer and did well. James Belharz kept tally of the sales which amounted to $1,964 15.

The pastors of the Waukegan churches are endeavoring to form a federation of the churches of that city. This is an excellent idea and it is to be hoped that our pastors will get together in such an undertaking.

City Council meets next Tuesday evening, May 5th. The old council goes out and the new comes in. There are three new aldermen and City Clerk Finney will "swear em," the mayor will read his inaugural, and name his committees, etc.

Now is the time of the year to be careful what you eat and drink. Don't drink impure water when you can get the Sparkling Spring Water delivered at your home fresh every day. Call up phone 984 and Mr. Tillman will see that you are supplied promptly.

The many friends of Mr. Julius Malmstedt, of Edgewater, will be pleased to learn that he expects to make his future home among us. Although we know not who the fortunate young lady is, it is rumored about that she is one of Highland Park's society girls.

The Woman's Club held its annual meeting Tuesday and elected officers as follows: Pres.—Mrs. B. A. Fessenden; Sec.—Mrs. Lawrence E. Olesen; Treas.—Mrs. D. M. Erskine. The program committee will present a rare bill of fare for next year beginning with October.

Just think of it. Henceforth the mayor is to have a salary of $100 per year and aldermen $3 per night. In Waukegan the mayor has $1,000 per year and the aldermen all the law allows. It is a shame to us that they have not been paid before and $100 won't half pay the mayor for his time and work.

The annual meeting of the board of managers of the Railroad Men's Home was held April 25th at the Sherman House, Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Watson were re-elected for the ensuing year. There will be a special meeting called some time the fore part of June, 1903, to arrange for a new building.

The gardener at the "Wildwoods" has hard work to keep some of our citizens from going on the grounds, picking and pulling up the early flowers without so much as asking permission. He thinks there is a lack of good breeding in Highland Park. The "Wildwood" colony will be out in about three weeks.

Some of the school board want to buy lot 7 with 300 feet front at $25 per front foot; lot 8, 100 feet front, same price, and lot 11 on Sheridan Road with 415 feet front at $40 per front foot for an athletic field and to enlarge school building. The price above given is what we understand is the asking price. Figure it out and see how much it will all come to, and then $10,000 to $15,000 more for an addition to the school house. How will you vote.

Mrs. Julia M. Gerry Dings, for many years a respected resident of Highland Park, was granted an absolute divorce from John A. Dings, a roust-about of the town, for non-support, etc. The judge restored her former name, Julia M. Gerry. Mrs. Gerry was formerly proprietress of the hostelry now known as the Highland Park Hotel, and which she managed with great skill and marked success. She is now a large owner of real estate here and was always successful in her undertakings until her unfortunate marriage a few years ago. Mrs. Gerry is now a resident of Woonsocket, S. D., where she has engaged in business.
