DELIGHTS OF A RIDE ON THE MILWAUKEE ELECTRIC.

With the approach of pleasant weather, the popularity of the Chicago and Milwaukee electric line is again coming into prominence. The beautiful ride up the north shore in the delightful cars of this company is among the very best things that Evanstonians have to enjoy "In the Good Old Summer Time." In fact few other cities in this country are blessed with a road that in a few minutes will take one out into the great, wide, free country, beneath the shade of spreading trees and through charming scenes of woodland delight. The scenes along its route are so so constantly varying that there is not an inch of the way from this city to Waukegan that does not contribute its share of interest. Extensive preparations are being made for the opening of Fort Sheridan park on Decoration day, and here at this resort a quiet hour may be spent beneath the trees enjoying the fun and go of good vaudeville.

It is rumored that it will not be long before the connection will be made with the trolley line that runs into the Fox lake country, and then the popular road will be more popular than ever. To be able to take a car at Evanston in the cool of the morning, and, by one simple change, ride all over the beautiful Fox lake country is a joy and anticipation of which will be awaited with eagerness by hundreds of citizens of this community.—Evanston Index.

From The Fort Sheridan News.

FORSAKEN.

Below find a little poem kindly dedicated to our Ed two years ago and printed in the "dirty rag" which he once thought he owned, but which also forsook him apparently, so just men have got their dues. Our Ed now thinks he owns The Union Leader. Guess nit.

Upon Ed's dainty uniform, No monogram you'll find. His luck is somewhat out of joint and His old friends seem unkind.

No money order, large or small, of late Has come to him, To soothe his discontented heart, or Make his suit look trim.

The woman's club, whose friend he Was, their faithful pliant tool. All loved him dear, because he took Such interest in their school.

A goodly sum they gathered up, to Help the good cause along; Ed thought he'd like to hold the funds, 'Twas then the club went wrong.

They kicked, protested, and scowled At such a proposition; His faith denied, his friendship scorned, Preferred his opposition.

They say that once upon a time, when Ed went off fishing. That he was in possession of a role That's since been missing.

But let us draw a sheet of white, A charitable mantel, Shut from view whatever else To him seems detrimental.

Let's hope that ere the sun grows hot Along the railway's border, His old-time luck will come again and Bring a money order.
