

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

Hammond M. B. May 1, 1904

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIII.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, MAY 23, 1903.

NO. 26.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

Rev. A. F. Anderson will preach at the Baptist church next Sunday morning.

The Junior League will meet at the Ebenezer Evangelical church on Second street.

Mrs. Julia M. Gerry was in Waukegan and Highland Park on business one day this week.

The cadets of the Northwestern Military Academy are on an outing near Madison, Wis.

Mrs. A. E. Dorsey and son, Alfred E., Jr., returned home after a two months absence.

Flag Day, which falls on Sunday June 14, this year will be celebrated on Monday the 15th.

Frank P. Green has his new store open for business. This is a very neat and attractive place.

The Baptists had a "full-blooded" Durham preacher Sunday last and are looking for a Jersey soon.

John Freberg has his new livery barn well under way up on his lot opposite the electric light plant.

A little son arrived at the home of James Sheahan Wednesday morning. Mother and child are doing nicely.

The Christian Endeavor hold their annual convention at the United Evangelical church, this afternoon.

West Central avenue is to have a washing down when our erstwhile "Foreman of Streets" gets good and ready.

The forty-third annual St. Louis fair will be held this year from Monday, October 5th to Saturday, October 11, inclusive.

Rumors are afloat to the effect that Cupid, the wicked little rascal, is cutting up his capers among our school teachers.

Wm. Dooley now has his commission and seal and is a full-fledged notary public, he will have his office in the Highland Park bank.

Mrs. Hopkins, mother of Mrs. Fred Schumaker, submitted to an operation in a Chicago hospital yesterday, and is very low from it.

Frank P. Schmitt, Sr., who recently bought the Gerry property on First street and Laural avenue has sold it to Louis Hodges, of New York city.

L. A. Spengler and family left for Los Angeles, Cal., Wednesday, he was to have started some time ago but was delayed on account of business matters.

The Moraine bus starts today and the elite of the country will turn their faces toward our lake bluffs. It promises to be the best season in the Moraine's history.

A "pair" arrived at the home of Wm. Witten yesterday afternoon. Will has been "setting 'em up" to his friends and casting about for suitable names for a boy and girl.

W. J. Pooley, a street car conductor from Chicago, was fined $10 and costs in Justice Murrin's court at Waukegan, Thursday, for gambling at the Everett resort, he paid the fine.

J. Wallace Waken and Mrs. Edgar M. Snow are among the latest additions to our local automobile club, and Mrs. Snow is unusually expert in handling her nobly machine.

One of our bibulous African brethren was hunting for our administrator of the law Wednesday and was told by "his honor" to go home and work off the effects of his Highwood cordial.

District No. 107 turned down the plans to enlarge the campus and school building by a vote of 75 for, to 101 against the plan. Some voted "no" because they are opposed to taxes.

Several parties have been inquiring for real estate lately. When they get located they will vote to enlarge the school house and campus and put some fresh pure air into the building.

Fire broke out in the pool room of Wolf on west Central avenue last Monday morning during Mr. Wolfe's absence, it was discovered, before much damage had resulted, and extinguished by citizens.

Andrew Bock has built a security cabinet and book case combined out of well season black walnut for his daughter. It is a gem of mechanical skill and is to be seen in Herman Borchardt's shop.

The Clericus Club had an informal but lively meeting last Saturday evening at the home of Fred P. Luther on Hazel avenue. Mr. Luther's mother from Minneapolis enjoyed the evening as a listener.

Messrs. Cape & Sons, of Racine, have a gang of men at work finishing up Hazel avenue, while the Dolese Brothers are finishing Forest avenue. They have several teams and a 20 ton steam roller at work.

The Zion City mail bag was drawn under the wheels of fast mail train No. 17 last Saturday morning and cut to pieces. The business men are up in arms at the careless way their mail is being treated by the Northwestern road.

Jas. Malloy had quite a serious accident Monday evening, while riding a spirited horse he was thrown to the ground at Central and St. Johns avenues, the horse falling on him, he was taken into a drug store and after being revived was assisted home by friends.

The Chicago & Milwaukee Electric railway expects to open the Libertyville branch about June 25th. The people over there have waited patiently over a year for the completion of this branch and are now jubilant over the knowledge that only about a month remains before its opening.

The pastor and member of St. Mary's Catholic church appreciate very much the kindness of Mr. Isaac Goldberg in donating the use of the opera house for services until the church is rebuilt, Mr. Goldberg also started a subscription list with $25, for the rebuilding of the burned buildings.

Mrs. D. M. Sammon and J. W. Wilson, both of Waukegan, have rented and opened the old Highland Park laundry on Laural avenue. The ladies seem to have much confidence in their ability to make it success and as both have had experience in this line it seems evident the Park is to have another good laundry.

According to the Springfield, Mass., Republican, H. Chandler Egan, of this city took part in some tall playing on the golf links of that city a week ago today. The Old Bay State players looked on with surprise and admiration while our young athlete, who is a student in Harvard, showed how westerners play golf.

Rev. Father Morrissey is having plans and specifications drawn for the rebuilding of St. Mary's church, a great many improvements are contemplated. The people of this parish are greatly gratified with the amount of energy and push their pastor has displayed in arranging the reconstruction of the parsonage and church edifice. The spirit of the pastor has invaded the members and they are giving him much encouragement as well financial help.