Additional Locals

The old artesian pond on the Prospect avenue lots, of the late Professor Gray are being filled up, preparatory entrust to one or two more cottages like the one occupied by Madame Rutter. No more will the kids skate on its surface or Messrs. Clampitt & Brown fill their ice houses, thence, nor will the musical frog sit on an old fallen branch of a tree and chant his vespers.

Perhaps all our folks don't know it, but the Vermont contingent here in the "Park" is growing so that Frank D. Everett and Judge Hibbard can't monopolize all the Green Mountain glory of the town. Mrs. F. H. Babcock, of Laural avenue, is from Springfield, one of the prettiest and most enterprising inland towns of new England. Mrs. Edwin Grover, of Park Place, is from old Caledonia county, which voted solid for prohibition in the late raid of rum and ruin in the state.

From the diary of a wife: "I am completely disheartened. Tonight I entered the parlor suddenly and found my husband lying on one side of my lovely new sofa cushion. How impossible it is for a woman to make a home in the true sense when she is married to such an insensate man! Sometimes I feel I should be glad to die!" Now, if the husband had lain on two sides of the sofa cushion how terrible the result must have been.—Ex.

Why Not $10 Instead of Four Little Ones?

Smith—Old Skinner promised his daughter a check for four figures if she married according to his wishes.

Jones—And did she get it?

Smith—Sure. The check called for $11.11.

THE MORAINES OPENS TODAY.

"The Moraine," Highland Park's famous hostelry is again open to the public. For two months or more extensive preparations have been going on for the opening this spring. Many beautiful new features have been added and the interior presents a lavish appearances. The furniture has been newly upholstered and renovated, the floors and woodwork refinished in handsome style. Old patrons will be astounded at the grandeur displayed in the work. Considerable more room has been provided and the management is trying to avoid over-crowding as has been necessary in former seasons.
