VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1903.

NO. 1.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Insure your property with W. E. Grand, Agent.

The Endeavor convention last Saturday was a success.

Mrs. D. C. Bannister visited with friends here this week.

The city council meets in regular session next Tuesday night June 2.

Cumming's clerk, Wier, returned from his eastern trip, Thursday night.

Did you ever see the foliage more dense and perfect the last day than it is now.

Rev. W. Anderson supplied the Baptists last Sunday, and may do so next Sunday.

Ed. Nolen and family moved into the Quadt house on West Central avenue this week.

The banks, postoffice and stores will close early in honor of the boys in blue gone before.

Considerable damage was done by the recent storms throughout the surrounding country.

Alderman Dooley is putting his aldermanic salary into a new cement sidewalk. A wise investment.

Don't think that ever sad eyed woman you meet has loved and lost. They may have loved and got him.

The Epworth League discuss former Missions in the M. E. church at the north end, Sunday evening.

Hazel avenue is about finished and it is a very fine street. Thanks to Messrs Cape & Sons, of Racine.

Four foot wood is only $7.50 per cord now and can't be had for that or any other price in any quantity.

We learn of the death of Dr. A. H. Fagerty, of pneumonia, in Chicago, this week. Dr. Fagerty had many friends and patients here.

The Deerfield Township High School Alumni will give an informal on the evening of June 10 in the high school building.

The meat market of the late E. C. Dehren's has disappeared. The cooler is gone and a harness shop is to take its place.

Next Monday is election for circuit judge. Do not fail to vote if convenient, but the candidate will be elected whether you vote or not.

Dr. and Mrs. Pomeroy returned from their Washington trip Friday and will reside at the Moraine hotel. Dr. Pomeroy will also have his office at the hotel.

Now that our aldermen get $3.00 for each meeting, they seem quite ready for extra and special sessions. But the mayor only gets his $8.66 per month.

W. J. Obee, the mason contractor, has put the plastering on the outside of Fritz Bahr's new house. It is not only moth proof but weather proof as well.

Think of our American weather, people dying in New York and trains stalled in snow banks ten feet deep in Montana, both places on nearly the same latitude.

One of the strong ambitions of the American boy is an ambition to lick the school master and carry him out. Some boys can boss the master without striking a blow.

The barn of Wm. Tillman, on his farm northwest of town was struck by lightning during Monday's storm and a cow of John Carlson's, which he had sheltered there, was killed.

If a frog at the the bottom of a well thirty feet deep jumps up three feet every day falls back two feet every night. How many day will it take him to get out?

Charles Stoker cut the grass on banker Holmes lawn a few days ago. The job was worth four dollars, but the banker got off for less, as it a capital offense to rob a bank.

The insurance on St. Mary's church and parsonage has been adjusted and plans are now being formulated for new structures more convenient and better than those destroyed.

Goldberg Bros., have bought a large stock of the celebrated Richitieu brand goods, this one of the best lines of pure food line of goods ever put on sale in Highland Park.

H. Chandler Egan gave the Bay State athletes another surprise on the golf links of old Brookline, just outside of Boston. They begin to think down there that he is a "phenomenon," and he is with some to spare.

Herman Borchardt looses his fine shop next to the News LETTER office, as "Barney's" popular hotel wants more room for cots, etc. Hence Herman moves his big bench, tools, etc., over to his new place on Second street.

The Record-Herald of Sunday had a cut of a fine house Mr. Pratt is building in this City. Where is it located? He will have a private 100 steel bridge over a ravine. It is up in the pocket beyond Mrs. Van Schaick's.

Since our last mention of Judge Hibbard's candidature for mayor in 1905 three more voters have announced their purpose to support him. At first it was only one voter, now it is four. Keep the ball rolling. Victory perches on the banner.

The city building is being thoroughly cleaned up. Now that the aldermen draw $3.00 per night they don't expectorate or throw cigar stubs on the floor and they leave their "gum shoes" down in the clerk's office with Attorney Smoot's bicycle.

Theodore Schwarz, of North St. Johns avenue had the misfortune to lose a valuable gold watch last Wednesday while going from his residence to the station. He will give a handsome reward for its recovery as it was of considerable value to him as a keepsake.

Rev. Pfanstiehl at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning. Will preach on the subject: "What makes for the Highest Good of the Nation?" A sermon appropriate for Decoration Day spirit. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

We planted some of Congressman Foss's garden seeds a few weeks ago and not one of them came up, while all those we got of Fitz Bahr came up promptly, which shows that politics is just as bad for garden seeds as it is for religion. Hence the average politician is such a rascal.

A. C. Thompson, the largest real estate owner in town was out here Wednesday and he carefully looked over John P. Kline's boot and shoe shop, as though he might make great improvements there. He has known "honest John" for years and will not turn a deaf ear to his requests.

The young men of Rev. Pfanstiehl's class have so far been victorious in every game of base ball they have played in the Presbyterian ball league, of Chicago Presbytery. Today they play the team from the church of the Covenant on the athletic fields of McCormick Seminary.

The woman who applied to Judge Hibbard the other day for a divorce from her wicked husband was told to go home and try peaceful measures of reform. Have the meals on time, food well cooked, hair put up and dress changed before dinner and several other good things, before coming to him again or starting for South Dakota.
