

"RETRIBUTION."

Since the "new owner" of the Sun has gone over, or at least tried to flip to the Democratic side the good old staunch Republican Gazette is plastering it all over. Here's one of the plasters:

BECAUSE!

Willie Smith has had another of his periodical spasms and all because the source of his "exclusive information" had a bad leak.

Willie Jay must not imagine that because the Gazette can tell about secret democratic meetings in the Sun office he (Willie Jay) can get information from the Gazette office.

The Gazette prides itself on being a home paper. Its columns are clean. We are not a foundling of the Chicago American or anybody else. Rather than malign any person, rich or poor, the Gazette will, in future, as in past, permit a "scoop" at the hands of the yellow rag down the street.

Because Waukegan's mayor subscribes $10 for the benefit of the suffering Jews, the Democratic organ imagines no one else knows it.

Because a man bearing an honored name, whose family is a respected one, is unfortunate and during a period of mental depression attacks himself, the dirty sheet prints a column of falsehood and then gnashes its toothless gums—for the fangs were long since drawn—because the Gazette, which knew of the occurrence several days before it was published, devoted a local to the bare facts in the case, and told the truth.

Because a boy has a narrow escape from being run down by a street car, Willie Jay waxes wroth that the Gazette devoted some of its valuable space to the happening.

Because the Fourteenth Ward and the City of Waukegan went Democratic, the Gazette should shut up shop.

Because the Gazette is Republican and glories in Republicanism, the Democratic organ would inform the public that it alone publishes the news—so it does the dirty kind.

Because the editors of the Gazette are not seeking any political position; refuse to be "bossed;" and mind their own business too well for the Sun's peace of mind, Willie, the jay, is foolish enough to show he is hurt. True he doesn't know any better, but his assistant (whose aspirations are too well known to require comment) should.
