

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

Highland Park

May 1, 1903

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1903.

NO. 3.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

Mr. Edson Keith and family are at the Moraine.

Miss Anna Cameron is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. E. Dorsey.

The Baptist's had a hustler in their pulpit last Sunday, and hope for him again.

City council hold an adjourned meeting next Tuesday evening, at the usual hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Ward, of Chicago, are the guests of Mrs. John Luyden, this week.

The frost nipped young tomatoes in some gardens Wednesday night. And the 10th of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Antidel have taken their old rooms at the Moraine and will arrive on the 18th.

At effort is being made to locate the post office on the west side and we hope it will succeed.

Mrs. D. C. Bannister and her sister, Mrs. T. Restorick, spent Thursday with Mrs. John S. Reesman.

The High School Alumni Association held their annual meeting and informal last Wednesday evening.

The assistant postmaster has a desk now in our postoffice, now that the old stove has gone to the junk pile.

Miss Grace Elvey has been laid up a few days this week with a sore throat. Miss Evans has filled her place.

Mr. A. B. Dick and family will be at the Moraine until their new home at Lake Forest is ready for occupancy.

If you see none of Highland Park's upper ten on the street today it is because they went to Lake Geneva on the excursion.

The Highland Park hotel fed over one hundred persons at dinner Tuesday of this week, and Barney says the house must be enlarged.

Senator S. M. Cullom, who has been at the Onwentsia club, has returned to the Moraine which he will be with his family for the summer.

Fred Schaefer and ex-mayor Cobb returned the assessors books Monday to county treasurer Price. The increase in the list is a little over $60,000 for personal property.

Mrs. F. Bahr entertained twenty-five ladies at her home Thursday. The ladies are the "Busy Bees" for the benefit of St. Mary's church, and needles as well as tongues were busy.

A prominent citizen told brother Hibbard one day this week that it was understood that he was booked for the next postmaster of Highland Park. The judge "didn't say nothin'."

The board of health should go up in a body and see the condition of things in a sanitary line between Mr. Thos. McNichols and the Phil Goldberg house. It is a case that smells to heaven and beyond.

The Rev. R. J. Tillman, an uncle of William and Richard Tillman, and Mrs. C. A. Knust, with his son, Herbert, is visiting relatives here for a few weeks. Rev. Tillman is from Arenzville, Cass county, Illinois.

Mrs. Phillip Goldberg and Mrs. Thomas McNichols had a scrap Thursday morning in Judge Hibbard's court. He continued the case till Saturday the 20th. Each to be on her good behavior till that time.

The ushers of St. Mary's Catholic church will give an entertainment and ball at The Moraine, on Thursday evening, June 25. It is to be a grand affair and the proceeds will be devoted to the rebuilding of the church recently burned.

The ladies of the luncheon club met at the residence of Mrs. Palmer A. Montgomery on Thursday, the weather being cool. After luncheon the ladies gathered in the large sitting room and enjoyed the log fire and had their usual good time.

Mrs. T. E. Pearson and daughter, Minnie, have returned from an extended trip to St. Louis and Cape Girardeau Mo. They were in attendance at the dedication of the World's Fair, and enjoyed a trip on the Mississippi river before the flood.

David A. Holmes' little booklet, "Wind Lore," says that if you go up into the sky 100 miles that the thermometer stands at 460 degrees below zero. Elegant place for the police court. "Cooler," it would take the fight right out of a drunk and disorderly.

Landlord Cushing, of the Moraine opens his ball room, warmed and lighted for an entertainment in behalf of St. Mary's church, Thursday evening, June 25. If you can't enjoy literary matters or trip the light fantastic, you can let others do that while you purchase a ticket or two, at one dollar each.

A number of Ruth Mauck's friends will accompany her to Hillsdale, Michigan, today to spend a couple of weeks vacation, and assist in the commencement exercises of the college of which Mr. Mauck is President. In the party are Viola Shields, Gertrude Schafer, Amy Holibird and Helen Coale.

C. W. Aldridge and family took a notion a few days ago to imitate a lot of other nabobs and spend the summer in Europe. So he hustled about, rented their house and hied them to New York, and sailed thence this day week, June 6th. Their address will be Tontarabia Road, Lavender Hill, London S. W. England.

Our versatile friend cashier Holmes has just issued a little circular pamphlet entitled, "Wind Lore," a very apt subject in these days of cyclones, tornado, etc., and it fits Mr. Holmes pretty well. He reminded us, betimes, of the elderly Scotch woman's description of her minister. "He is a gude mon, but sometimes he is unco' windy." But if you own a house or barn you had better read his little booklet.

Col. Charles S. Diehl, the assistant general manager of the great Associated Press Association, which gathers and distributes all the news of this world, and some others, will go with his family to New York next week. He has to go every year or two with his family anywhere from New York to San Francisco. Only Melville E. Stone is ahead of him in the news line and he will be at the head one of these days. He won his spurs on the old Chicago Times.

The eighth grade class of District 107 will shortly issue invitations for its closing exercises, to be held in the Presbyterian church, Thursday evening, June 18. The members of the class will give an informal travel programme, profusely illustrated with stereopticon views of superior quality. An expert operator from Chicago will assist. The grammar school will close Wednesday afternoon, June 24. It is planned to have field day exercises that afternoon, the programme for which will be given later.

FOR RENT.—On account of changing location of business will rent home for term of years, house finely finished, every modern convenience, large grounds, one block from electric cars, two blocks from Moraine Hotel, walking distance from Exmoor Golf Grounds. Address Palmer Boat Co., Highland Park, Ill. Phone 262.