

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS-LETTER

Hammond M R
May 1, 03

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1903.

NO. 6.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Insure your property with W. E. Brand, Agent.

Invitations are out for the Evans-Stevens wedding next Tuesday.

The Highland Park public library will be closed all day July 4th.

Rev. A. F. Anderson has returned from the east and will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday.

One of our young men seemed to be having a "circus" all on his own hook with a borrowed horse, Tuesday.

The dwellers on Hazel avenue claim they have the finest street in the city. It is surely a very fine one.

Miss Mamie Cox is back in the post office after a week's vacation on full pay, among the wilds of Wisconsin.

The mammoth circus held two shows in town Tuesday, and those who saw them said they were good for the price.

The Northwestern and Electric roads have arranged for the joint use of a new depot, the erection of which was started this week, at Lake Bluff.

Mayor Evans has put up a new galvanized iron gutter in front of his hotel porch roof. He don't want any "eaves dropping" about his elegant hostelry.

Thirty five Waukegan parties have been sued in Judge Hibbard's court. Cases called next Tuesday afternoon. Terribile est fallere in handibus legis!

Alderman Everett and his street and alley committee are working day and night to find a few rods of poor sidewalk to be rebuilt and half a dozen streets to be macadamized.

Have you seen some of the elegant job work the NEWS-LETTER of fice has turned out lately? Do so and then go to Chicago to get your business cards printed on your three cent, wood pulp paper envelopes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cox, of Ravenswood, with their two children, Harry and John, were visiting at the home of Jno. S. Reesman Sunday, also a brother of Mrs. Reesman's, Mr. Frank Haungs, of Chicago.

Clement Smoot is now a Sophomore in the University at Ann Arbor, Mich., but will spend his vacation with his father here at the Moraine paying more attention to golf than to Aeschyles and Livys or the differential calculus.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cheney came to Chicago last week for the wedding of Miss Bertha Chapman, and called on some of their old friends in this city Monday. They left the same evening for their home in Randolph, Va.

Carl Pfanstiehl and G. E. Phillips have succeeded in taking the first X Ray picture that has been taken in Highland Park. This was done by an apparatus constructed by them except the crookes tube and florescope, which were borrowed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Antisdal are at the Moraine, while their very fine horse and carriage are housed at the Prussing barn on Maple avenue. Lloyd, who graduated at Harvard a year or two ago is taking lessons in the American Express offices at Des Moines, Iowa.

Miss Mollie Stark Battorm, a teacher in Room Room No. 6, left for her long summer vacation at her home in the ancient town of Shaftsbury, Vermont, last Thursday morning. A celebrated electrician of Chicago saw her off from that city over the Pennsylvania road.

Some folks are kicking cause the Electric road has elevated its tracks up beyond the McDonald corner, some three feet. The fact is the Electric is all right; the city council should have elevated St. Johns street at that point at least two feet last fall before macadamizing. That was the mistake.

Harvey and Paul McQuiston, after a few weeks visit with relatives in this city left for their work on the big coffee plantation in Mexico, of which they are in charge. They took their degrees at the University of Chicago two years ago, and have been down among the Mexicans ever since.

Next Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock the community will have the privilege of hearing the Rev. Geo. P. Williams, of Chicago, deliver an address on "Chicago City Missions." Mr. Williams is clearly conversent with the subject. He will speak at the Presbyterian church. Every body invited.

Several of our sensible people attended the college commencement Wednesday at Lake Forest. Miss Sargent's special friends will go up next week for the Ferry Hall commencement. They viewed the exercises Wednesday by a brisk fire in the Deerpath Inn, which nearly destroyed that hotel.

If the aldermen only knew how anxious the friends of the public library are to have the council accept with thank Mr. Carnegie's gift, they would do it at once and be sure of that. Then decide on the site, get plans for a building and go ahead. That is show our appreciation by our prompt action and good sense.

Our neighbor, Joseph W. Mauck, the new President of Hillsdale College, Michigan, sends a program of the semi-centennial of that institution to be celebrated July 4th. Hillsdale is one of those colleges which has managed to turn out a lot of big men. A large number of prominent men from all over the country will be there.

Astounding news comes from Vermont. One postmaster has resigned, another has died, a woman has been appointed on a Lake Champlain steamer, 6,673 hedgehogs have been killed in the state with 76 towns to be heard from, and Ludlow has a new post office with modern, up-to-date equipments, as Highland Park, Ill. will have, some day.

The milkmen of Highland Park and vicinity have arranged to discontinue the afternoon delivery of milk, the plan of delivering twice a day has been a source of considerable loss to dealers as it is necessary to hire two sets of drivers. The men have to get up at 3:30 a. m., for the first delivery, and it is too much to ask them to deliver all day.

Last Sunday Harry Tomphort, of Ravinia, was married to Miss Nellie Bassid at the home of the bride in Lake Forest. After the ceremony they went to the home of Mrs. J. H. Stipe in Ravinia, where covers were laid for twelve. The rooms were decorated with roses and ferns and a most enjoyable evening was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Tomphort will make their future home in Ravinia.

FREE TO ALL.

To draw attention to our Kutlery Department we will sharpen free of charge any carver, pocket, butcher or kitchen knife left at our store by July 1. Don't forget the date.

D. C. PURDY & SONS.

Who's NEWS-LETTER are you reading?