HIGHWOOD.

A building ordinance has been passed by the council, hereafter nothing but brick construction goes on Waukegan ave.

The Colts played a game with a nine at Waukegan last Sunday, usual result, however, they did beat Deerfield the Sunday before.

Both the electric light and telephone company are asking highway commissioners for permission to extend their wires to Deerfield.

Misses Florence Long, Lou Palmer and several other young ladies from Chicago will spend the 4th with Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Brady.

Last Tuesday a dog supposed to be mad created considerable excitement near the city hall. Fire Marshal Detrick shot the animal.

About a thousand children from Evanston and their chaperons picniced on the government grounds last Saturday. It required thirteen electric cars to carry them.

Lieut. McCue, alleged bigamist now under arrest at the Fort, is said by his brother officers to have had a "splendid record in the Philippines." This should be very consoling to wife No. 2.

Dusty Rhodes—Yes, the street sprinkler was ordered from the Studebaker Co., and is coming from South Bend, Ind., therefore will not be here until Tuesday or Wednesday.

The city council should pass an ordinance governing the speed of autos within the limits, as some of the red devils run through our streets almost as fast as Clem Meriman with the work car.

Last Sunday a swarm of bees settled on a limb overhanging the sidewalk on Waukegan avenue within a few feet of the pop shack conducted by Thos. McGlone, that gentleman finding they were doing much injury to his business (also his anatomy) sent for Marshal Gordon, who responded just in time to make close connection with the business end of one of the little pests; the officer's swift get away was neither dignified nor orderly, but was a source of amusement to those who viewed it from a respectful distance.
