Some people claim that they occasionally hear a long low wail issue from the White House, in the small hours of the night. It is believed to be due to the Payne in the bowels of the administration.

When Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, a democratic representative elect in congress, presented himself to be sworn in he was incontinently fired, but when Reed Smoot, a republican senator elect from Utah, presented himself to be sworn in the oath was administered to him without hesitation and without question. Both are Mormons, but Roberts is a democrat and Smoot a republican; hence the difference in treatment.—Long Prairie (Minn.) Democrat.

A preacher tells the following: He was in Apanoose county, Ia., preaching on one occasion, when he stopped at a farm house to get dinner. While eating the lady inquired his business and he replied: "I'm hunting the lost sheep of the house of Israel." She left the room and in a few minutes returned with her husband when she said: "This man is hunting lost sheep, and I'll bet that old long wool ram that's been around is his'n." "No sister", you don't understand me. I'm hunting sinners; those for whom Christ died." "And is he dead?" she queried. "Yes," he replied, astonished at her ignorance. "And buried, too, I reckon?" "Oh yes long ago." "There now, od man; I told you we'd die in ignorance for not takin' a newspaper."—Ex.

ALBERT LARSON PROPRIETOR.

We are happy to chronicle the fact that Mr. Albert Larson, who has been with A. P. Dunn in the well known news, stationery and cigar store on St. Johns avenue, has become sole proprietor of that old and reliable establishment. Twenty years ago Mr. Dunn and his brother had an establishment about where the post-office stand in the old "Rookery" now around on Central avenue. Then when the postoffice moved out of the Highland Park bank corner, Mr. Dunn moved in there and then when the bank came he went into the present location.

He had various helpers but none were as satisfactory to him and the public as Mr. Larson, whom he left in full charge of the business when in a fit of rare sanity he took a wife and went to California for a trip and finally located there. About ten days ago Mrs. Dunn came here and made a bargain with Mr. Larson and Tuesday the trade was closed. "Albert" is sole proprietor now. Everybody likes him, he is courteous, patient, painstaking and wholly trustworthy young man. He will do his best to satisfy the old customers as well as attract new new ones. He is entitled to a cordial and generous support as one of our worthy young men.
