

Hammond M R
May 1, 04

SHERIDAN ROAD NEWS LETTER

A Newspaper Devoted to the Interests of the Cities, Towns and Villages Along the North Shore

VOL. XIV.

HIGHLAND PARK, ILL., SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1903.

NO. 10.

LOCAL NEWS NOTES.

Rev. A. F. Anderson is expected to preach for the Baptist tomorrow.

Quite a number of the artillery boys went to Detroit last week for fancy practice.

Miss Minnie Greuel left Thursday for an extended visit in Minnesota and Dakota.

Goldberg Bros., are painting their big brick block. Brand Bros., are doing the work.

Chas. H. I. and Mrs. Warren have gone to upper Wisconsin on their annual vacation.

Miss May Rogers, of Louisville, Ky., is spending a few days with Miss Eva Wycoff.

Frank Sheahan's baby, which has been suffering with an abscess, is slowly recovering.

States Attorney Talcott was in town Thursday afternoon telling Rocky mountain stories.

Nelson & Gage of 208 Wabash avenue, tuned the piano and organ of the Baptist church this week.

James McDonald reached home Friday morning all right, having enjoyed a delightful five weeks trip.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Norman Scott gave a dinner party Sunday to a few select guests from this city and Chicago.

Don't forget the Fireman's picnic August 6th. Tie a red string on your little finger to keep it in mind.

L. J. Rice, the carpenter, submitted to a surgical operation a few days ago and is gaining rather slowly.

Chaplin Halsey C. Gavitt, of the army is temporarily stationed at Fort Baird, New Mexico, at the army sanitarium.

If any newly married people want a set of dishes cheap, they can't do better than call on Frank B. Green.

Miss VanSchaick has been visiting the family of C. C. Cheney in the beautiful new home in Ramdolph, Virginia.

Samuel Levin, the jeweler made a wise remark yesterday, that Italy raised all the popes and most of the great men.

Fred Rudolph got a day off duty Thursday and painted his porch floors and fixed his barn for a few tons of choice hay.

Alfred Moses has just repainted the broadside of his store and added the new Exmoor sub-division to his otherwise full line.

Mrs. N. O. Moore, of 'Glenmore' up on Bloom street with her daughter, Mary, just returned from a two week's visit to Milton, Wis.

The soldiers give a dress parade every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at 6:15 o'clock and after the parade they give a band concert.

The ladies society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen from Chicago will hold their annual picnic at the Railroad Men's home Sunday the 26th.

Captain Slack, in service in the Light Guards of his majesty King Edward VII, spent a week in the Park, the guest of J. W. Wycoff on St. John's Place.

Nathan O. Moore, Jr, who recently graduated from Milton College has been engaged as head master of the school in Scandanavia, Waupaca county, Wisconsin.

There are so many autos in and about town getting out of repair that A. G. McPherson's gas engine keeps up a perpetual snorting day and night, Sundays included.

The 21st artillery left for Fort Douglas Wednesday, to be gone a month or six weeks. This will let the Badger's know how good it is to have troops quartered on them.

Mrs. Smith, who has rooms at Ravinook, left for Marinette, Wis., Tuesday morning. She will be gone some three weeks and on her return buy a lot and build herself and family a home.

There is a fine stretch of cement sidewalk being laid from Alex Robertson's north to Vine avenue on the west side of St. Johns avenue. Only one break occurs, against Henry K. Coale's lot.

A special message from Seattle says James McDonald turned his back on the Pacific ocean Monday and would be due in this city Friday night singing "Home, Sweet Home, There is no Place Like Home."

Arthur Purdy has returned from the annual encampment of the I. N. G. at Springfield. Arthur is a member of Company K, 1st regiment and is a crack shot, winning a great number of medals for markmanship. He reports a exciting time during the ten days.

The minstrel show at the Moraine last Saturday night was very successful. The performers did nicely and played to a comparatively full house with people from Lake Forest, Evanston, and other north shore towns and many from Chicago in the audience.

The Malta Vita supper given by the ladies of the Baptist church one night last week was a great success. The Malta Vita folks furnished all the Malta free, sent out two cooks to do the thing up brown, and they did it too perfection. Some one gave the meats, etc., and the ladies netted about $34.00 for their new carpet fund.

A visit to the Palmer Boat company's shops up on St. Johns avenue would be a revelation to many people. The boats are gone now save one gasoline launch, but several new ones are on the stocks. Their boats go from St. Louis to Buffalo and up to Lake Superior. They have won nearly all the races out at Fox and other inland lakes.

Last Monday John Arps, the station agent left for his new field, Cary, over on the Madison division and E. W. Mauman, of Lake Forest, placed here. He is a fine appearing, capable and reliable young man, and bids fair to become a popular agent. Take John Duffy, John Arps and Mr. Mauman, a pretty fine lot of young men we have had in our railway station.

Mrs. VanSchaick gave an afternoon tea Friday to about forty guests at her beautiful home on Vine, avenue including the society ladies of this city, with Mrs. Byron S. Smith, Mrs. J. W. Hamline, of Lake Forest, who rode down in Mrs. Smith's automobile. Mrs. Gregory of "Ledgemere" read a paper on Holland, which was pronounced very fine by those who had the good fortune to hear it. It was not only informing, but admirably written.

There is to be a charity lawn fete held at the residence of Mrs. Frederick M. Steele on the afternoon and evening of July 28. The entertainment provided for the guests includes many attractive features such as music, fortune telling, ice cream eating, etc. Mrs. Steele and her daughter, Elizabeth, will dispense the hospitality assisted by a number of their friends. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and lend a helping hand to further the cause which makes it possible for the little children of the slums of Chicago to have a happy outing at Gad's Hill Settlement, Glencoe.