The Chicago American wants a post mortem examination of most persons who die, so as to learn whether it was disease or the doctor that killed them. If the latter have him punished. "Who's sufficient for these things."

A very intelligent and public citizen said the other day, the only objection to Hazel park for the new library building would be a "cheap building." That's so, but we won't have no cheap building there or anywhere else.

If anybody thinks that versatile politician Arthur K. Stearns is dead and his coffin nailed up with twenty penny nails, we advise them of their mistake. He is very much alive and bids fair to be more so in the near future.

BRICK CHURCH PICNIC.

The United Evangelical church folks had their Sunday school picnic down on the lake front park last Thursday. The weather was delightful throughout, the attendance large, everybody was good natured and obeyed the golden rule all day and hence it was a complete success. There was a race up the 113 steps from the power house to the top of the bluff. Fred Moon and Herbert Inman tied on 16 seconds the first time and some of the others a little behind them and on the second trial Fred Moon came up in 16 seconds and Inman a little behind. How many steps did Fred and Herbert make in a second the first run? Altogether it was a very pleasant picnic and the babies were as numerous as autumn leaves and the attendance at the Sunday school won't run out.
